Sheriff Candidate Denies Rumor of $50,000 Payoff

B. W. "Dick" Richardson, candidate for county sheriff, declared it is an "unfounded lie" that he withdrew from the sheriff's race four years ago for "50,000 bucks."

"I received no money from Sheriff Long. Nor anyone else and I wasn't offered any," Richardson stated in a two-hour-long intreview in this writer's office. He said this is his answer to "the rumor" sweeping the county that four years ago he was "getting $50,000 bucks . . . if I promised not to run."

Explaining why he decided not to run, Richardson said, "Friends advised me not to . . . many had already pledged their support to Long." (See adjoining story.)

"Long and I talked for 20 minutes at a dinner party (in 1950). He said he had never told any one else but he wanted to reach the goal of 40 years in public service and wanted to serve one more term . . . Then, other people said I was young enough and that four years wouldn't make much difference.

Long Promise His Support?

Asked if Long promised to support him for sheriff if he did not run in 1950, Richardson replied:

"I took it for granted that is what he meant. But he didn't say withdraw."

This column, "Under the Sun," is a weekly feature of The SUN's Editorial Page — the last page.

Richardson argues that he never said for certain that he was a candidate in 1950 . . . only that he was considering running and was investigating the possibility.

This writer reminded him of the day Bill Scanlon, public relations consultant and former Contra Costa March of Dimes campaign director, brought Richardson to The SUN office and introduced him as a candidate for sheriff. Later this writer invited Richardson to the Chamber of Commerce meeting. He was introduced there as a candidate for sheriff and spoke briefly in behalf of his candidacy.

Richardson explained, "Your chamber here is the only time I talked to a group. I remember you gave me a good introduction."

Richardson received campaign funds

He was then asked about the $3000 from John Miller and two contributions of $1000 each he received to conduct his campaign in 1950.

"I did not get the money directly from Miller," Richardson stated. "Vic Fagoni (of the 7 Bells Restaurant in El Cerrito) handed it to me. And it was not quite $2,000 from the other two."

Asked when he returned the money, he said, "I took it back about the time I decided not to run. I quit long before filing time — and I'll look up the story that was in the paper and let you know the date."

$3,000 — all in $20 bills?

Did you return the $3,000 to Miller all in $20 bills?

"I don't recall. I can't honestly say," the candidate from Richmond answered.

"John (Miller) had called on me and urged me to run. . . . When I decided not to, I went to his home and told him every detail. I said I didn't think he or anyone else could beat Long."

"If I were afraid to face people, I would not run. The story (of the payoff) has to start somewhere."

He attributes the "rumors" to John Miller.

Didn't Bill Scanlon understand you were a candidate and that he was going to handle your campaign?

"He didn't know emphatically I would run. . . He called John and Fagoni. He didn't think (they) were doing it right. He said he would like to manage (the campaign) but would handle it in a business-like way."

Answers charges about vacations

He said he and his wife did go on a vacation in May, 1950 (month prior to the primary election). They visited his parents and attended his brother's graduation. He said they bought a "used car" from the Ford plant in Richmond.

Weren't you granted a month's leave of absence from your job as Richmond Constable by the Board of Supervisors?

"Every official must get the board's approval to leave the county," he explained. It is routine.

Asked if the reports are true that he took a trip to Hawaii, he said he and his wife flew there last year on "Pan Am coach — $225 each round trip and stayed there two weeks."

Rumors have been rampant about his vacations and trips.

Richardson was appointed assistant director of civil

Richardson Tells Why He's in Race

In a formal announcement issued this morning, B. W. "Dick" Richardson, candidate for the office of Sheriff of Contra Costa County, explained his reasons for having placed his name in nomination.

"This is not a snap decision on my part," Richardson explained. "I have been contemplating running for the office of Sheriff for the past four years. In 1950, after having made inquiries throughout the County as to the advisability of running, and after having made spot checks in all parts of the County, I concluded that it would have been inadvisable for me to have placed my name in nomination at that time, as many of the people on whom I would have had to call for support had already offered their support to Sheriff Long.

"AFTER THINKING about the situation for sometime, I decided that perhaps I could use additional administrative experience and gain more of that experience in working with people as individuals and as groups.

"This valuable experience was given to me when I was named Coordinator of Civil Defense of the City of Richmond, and later Manager of the Richmond Memorial Auditorium."

"The office of Sheriff necessitates much administrative work and a good knowledge of working with people. I believe that my experience in police work, in auditing, and as an administrator has fitted me for the office," Richardson said.

"I HAVE NO desire to use this office for personal advantage or personal gain, but I do have an honest desire to serve the people of Contra Costa County well and faithfully, with the end always in mind of keeping the County well policed. Having worked all my life, I am not afraid of hard work, and doing just that is what a competent Sheriff must expect every day he is in office," he concluded.

RICHARDSON WAS born in Chadbourn, North Carolina in 1908 and attended high schools in South Carolina. His experience includes a position as auditor for the Atlantic Coast Line and Southern Railroads, the California Highway Patrol and special personal agent to Governor Earl Warren.

He also served as Constable of Richmond and after one term, was made Coordinator of Civil Defense for Richmond and Manager of the Richmond Memorial Auditorium.

Among his affiliations are tne Richmond Elks Club, Rotary Club, Alpha Lodge, F.&A.M., Aahmes Temple of the Shrine and various professional organizations.

He is married and lives in Richmond.

Pin-Ball Ban Denied, New Plan Studied

A proposal to outlaw all kinds of pin-ball games in Contra Costa County was rejected this week by the Board of Supervisors, who then instructed District Attorney Francis Collins to work out a law to control the devices through licensing.

Action followed a lengthy statement by Gerould L. Gill, owner of Marsh Creek Springs, who said that the proposed law would be unfair to resort owners in the county.

He said that pin-ball machines pay the rent for many resorts which, he added, provide most of the recreation in the county.

SUPERVISORS instructed Collins to meet with the board, a member of the Grand Jury and representatives of the resort owners and novelty machine distributors.

SEE EDITORIAL — BACK PAGE

The suggestion for licensing machines came from Supervisor Warren Buchanan of Pittsburg who said that such a law has been successful in his community.

Supervisor Ivan Goyak of Richmond added that a member of the Grand Jury should be included in the study of such a law. Buchanan had suggested that the law be written "perhaps with the help of the pin-ball machine operators of the county."

RAY TAYLOR, supervisor of the third district, repeated his earlier comments, saying, "Outlawing should be done by the state, not the county . . . I've heard no complaints from anyone, except one person."

In reply to the proposal to license pin-ball machines, Gill said it would hurt the resorts because it would cut down the income from pin-ball games.

Speaking for the Resort Owners Association of Contra Costa, Gill charged, "An editor who has it in for someone in the county is trying to make all of us feel like a bunch of crooks."

HE WENT ON TO SAY that credit should be given to resort owners for the services they provide and for the money they pay in taxes.

Admitting that he has over 40 machines in his own resort, Gill said that they are part of the recreational facilities, adding, "People have a right to enjoy themselves."

He said that pin-ball machines put many people to work because they attract customers who then buy other things like ice cream.

ASKED IF pin-ball games can't be games of chance and thus illegal, Gill replied, "There's a possibility of gambling, but no one is doing it."

He described bad machines as the ones that "grab money fast" and said, "If the sheriff wants to get rid of bad machines, he should watch those taking money fast."

He said that racketeers are not connected with pin-ball machines because "they want fast money."

"A GENTLEMAN GAMBLER who has been in the papers in this county for years has nothing to do with pin-ball machines. Most of the pin-ball machines are owned by little fellows who are just barely making a living," Gill added.

Gill said he knows what is going on the county through a "private grapevine" and told the board that he had found that Contra Costa is "a clean county."

"Nobody except one newspaperman has been concerned by this thing, and you know very well who I mean," he said, adding, "if he wants to run a newspaper, all right; if he wants to be an investigator, all right; but he shouldn't mix the two."

Referring to the County Grand Jury which proposed the ordinance, Gill said, "I've been on two grand juries and we went out and investigated — we didn't take one man's opinion and step on a lot of toes."

"THE DISTRIBUTORS were not invited in to help make up the ordinance and they are the most concerned. The ordinance shouldn't be the work of just one side of the story," he said.

Mercury's Up, Rainfall Down

Real summer weather made its appearance in Orinda this week, giving a definite hint of things to come.

There was no rain, leaving the seasonal total at 24.05 inches, but the temperature, with one exception, stayed in the 80's.

Here are the temperatures:

	High	Low
April 15	84	40
April 16	86	46
April 17	88	47
April 18	87	49
April 19	80	47

Voters to Decide Sewer District Issue Tuesday

Voters of the Central Contra Costa Sanitary District will decide Tuesday whether or not the district shall incur a bonded indebtedness of 4 million for mjaor expansion and re-alignment of the present facilities.

A two-thirds majority is required to pass the general obligation bond issue, and polls will be open from 7 a. m. to 7 p. m.

If any voter does not know where to vote, he may call the district at YE 4-6727 and the information will be supplied.

THE CONTRA COSTA COUNTY Taxpayers' Association announced yesterday that it had received a favorable report from its local affiliate, the Acalanes Taxpayers' Committee, and added:

"Studies . . . showed that the bond issue, to be voted April 27, was the fastest and most economical method for solving the sewer problem in the expanding Lafayette-Orinda-Walnut Creek-Pleasant Hill area.

"The cost would be a six-cent tax rate increase the first year up to 25 cents the fourth year, and less thereafter. If the bond issue is not passed by a two-thirds vote, the alternative financing would be a 15-cent increase in the operating tax rate, sewer rental charge, or increased assessments.

"ACCORDING to the groups these devices would cost more and would mean piece-meal work."

The bond issue has also been endorsed by the Lafayette and Walnut Creek Chambers of Commerce, the County Health Department, the General Contractors Association, the Real Estate Board and the majority of members of the Citizens Advisory Committee to the Sanitary District.

Chamber Votes To Endorse Fluoridation

After a lengthy and heated debate of nearly an hour, the Orinda Chamber of Commerce voted to endorse fluoridation of the water supply 16 to 4 Tuesday noon.

Pro and con speakers were given 10 minutes to present their case and then a five minute rebuttal.

Dr. Charlotte Steiner, Orinda chiropractor, introduced Mrs. Hugo Franzen of San Francisco who opposed fluoridation.

DR. ZACHARY STADT, County Public Health Dentist who spoke in favor of the measure, was introduced by Dr. Ron Light.

The endorsement followed the debates and a brief question and answer period. Dr. Edwin J. McCord, president, turned the meeting over to Ramsay Underwood who acted as moderator.

In other action, Stan Allen suggusted that the chamber contribute to the present incorporation study being carried out in Orinda and the matter will be considered at the next meeting.

John Loop reminded members of the Tuesday Sanitary District Bond election.

RAMSAY UNDERWOOD pointed out that a dust problem is being caused by Overpass construction and announced that the contractor is watering the area several times a day, however, he thought they should water more often.

Andy Blalock was instructed to take the matter up with the contractor.

The possibility of setting up a parking district will be discussed at the next meeting, May 4.

In a recent article The SUN said the chamber had an option to buy PG&E land for parking lots. This was in error. The chamber has leased the land.

Hearing on Civil Defense Charges to Be Held Monday Night by Supervisors

In response to a request by the sub council, public hearing on the Clayton Area Civil Defense Sub Council's sweeping charges against the Contra Costa Civil Defense and Disaster Council will be held by the County Board of Supervisors at 7:30 p.m. Monday in the supervisors' room in Martinez.

Deputy County Clerk Mary A. Smith informed Mrs. Eleanor R. Daly, sub council recorder, of the hearing date and added that Sheriff James N. Long, county civil defense director, or George Burton, his assistant, or both will be present to answer the 13 charges in the sub council's 41-page report.

Miss Smith also stated that, as asked by the sub council, County Superintendent of Schools B. O. Wilson, Dr. H. L. Blum, county health ofifcer, and Social Welfare Director W. G. Golden are being invited to the session.

THE COUNTY GRAND Jury's law enforcement committee, headed by O. J. Wohlgemuth of Walnut Creek, is scheduled to report on its study of the charges to the full Grand Jury Tuesday.

"This is not simply a test between the sub council and the sheriff's office or the County Civil Defense Council," Mrs. Kenneth Cordy, publice information officer of the Clayton Area Civil Defense Sub Council, said yesterday.

"This is a matter which affects everyone in the county, and all persons even slightly interested should attend the hearing Monday night if possible.

"ESPECIALLY SHOULD every parent concerned over the need for better civil defense organization in the schools be present."

The supervisors last week had scheduled a hearing for last Tuesday afternoon but the sub council, through Mrs. Daly, rejected that date, asking instead for an evening hearing, preferably on a Monday, because of the widespread interest in the problem.

The comprehensive report of the sub council accuses the county civil defense organization of inefficiency, failure to develop an adequate program and discouragement of initiative of sub council personnel.

It sharply criticizes the county perspective of developing a "cadre" system instead of promoting general participation and training.

All Schools to Hold Open House

Next week is Public Schools Week and there will be suitable display and an open house at each Orinda School.

"We sincerely hope that everybody takes advantage of this fine opportunity to visit the schools their children attend," said Joseph Sheaff, superintendent of schools.

HE INDICATED, however, that everybody is welcome, whether they have children in the schools or not.

Open house will be held at Sleepy Hollow and Del Rey Schools Tuesday, Glorietta Wednesday and Orinda School Thursday. Each school will be open from 7:30 to 9:30 p m.

Teachers will be present to greet parents and visitors and there will be a display of the work the children have done throughout the year. The fundamental skills will be stressed, Sheaff said.

PUNCH AT FIVE CENTS a cup will be served by the Girl Scouts and the Girls' Chorus, under the direction of Miss Sara Sableman will present a short program at Orinda School Thursday night.

This is the only formal program which will be presented.

Public Schools Week was started by the Masonic Order, and has since been co-sponsored by other groups.

Acalanes High School will also hold open house Monday night and parents will "attend school" on a 10-minute period basis throughout a typical day.

Civic Affairs Discusses Fluoridation

Delegates to the Orinda Association's Civic Affairs Committee will be discussing fluoridation of drinking water with their respective organizations during the next few weeks, with the aim of bringing their groups' views to the Civic Affairs meeting of May 17.

This action results from Monday night's Civic Affairs meeting at Orinda School, where representatives of 15 organizations heard Dr. Ronald Light, local dentist, tell of the benefits of fluoridation and urge resolutions to East Bay Municipal Utility District for fluoridation.

Dr. Light, Orinda chairman in the Contra Costa Dental Society's fluoridation education campaign, was introduced by Civic Affairs Chairman Tevis Thompson.

DELEGATES GENERALLY were favorable to fluoridation but felt they should get reactions of their organizations before Civic Affairs makes a recmmendation to the Orinda Association board.

Listing the many organizations—including medical and dental groups and governmental health agencies—in favor of fluoridation, Dr. Light stressed that the process of adding one part of fluorine to a million parts of water has been proven to reduce tooth cavities by 60 to 65 per cent for children up to 12.

"If children continue with the same diet many of them have now, including candies and other sweets, will fluoridation still reduce cavities that much?" Mrs. Helen W. Drews asked.

"THAT'S RIGHT—it will," Dr. Light replied. "But we advise them to cut down on sweets, too."

In answer to a question by Thompson about communities which have fluoridation, Dr. Light said:

"To date, some 16 million people in the United States have fluoridated water supplies—four million who drink naturally fluoridated water and 12 million for whom fluorine has been added to the water. There are absolutely no adverse effects."

Rotary Club Is Five Years Old

Wednesday was the fifth birthday of the Orinda Rotary Club and the speakers were charter members of that organization.

Dan Popovich was program chairman and Merle Brown, the first president and founder, and Frank Olson, second president and also a founder, spoke.

They told a little of how the club was formed. Six of the original 19 members were present. They were Merle Brown, Ed Hudson, Bob Nordquist, Earl Fitch, Paul Pease and Jack Buchter.

Some of the members were members of the Lafayette club, which sponsored the Orinda group. Don Blackwood, who was president of the Lafayette club when the Orinda group was formed, was also present.

Next week Stan Walgren, principal of Acalanes High School, will present a panel of student speakers.

Supervisors Okay Planning Board

"Satisfaction with the present Planning Commission" was expressed by the County Board of Supervisors Tuesday, in reply to the Orinda Association's request for review of commission personnel.

Answering the association's resolution urging such review for the purpose of requiring that no commissioner have any interests "that would reasonably tend to conflict with his unbiased action," the Board of Supervisors, in a letter signed by Chairman H. L. Cummings, stated:

"We have specially reviewed among ourselves and with the Planning Commission the qualifications of each of the commissioners. We are well satisfied with our present commission."

The letter was read by Deputy County Clerk Mary A. Smith, at the request of Cummings. Miss Smith later said the letter, to be sent to Mrs. Stuart Henderson, association secretary, would probably be mailed yesterday.

THE ASSOCIATION board resolution, adopted March 22, stemmed from widespread community protests to Planning Commissioner Joseph DeCosta's participation in February 26 commission executive meeting discussion of the Pine Grove-Crossroads area rezoning dispute after he had previously disqualified himself from official action in the matter.

DeCosta, an Orinda resident, is distribution division manager for East Bay Municipal Utility District, which has applied for Retail Business rezoning of some 52 acres of Crossroads-area property, including the Pine Grove at the northeast corner.

The supervisors' letter said:

"Your resolution mentioned Mr. DeCosta by name, and we are aware of the publicity which has involved him. We have specially reviewed his qualifications on the commission.

"MR. DeCOSTA is employed by a public body, not by any private organiaztion. The East Bay Municipal Utility District, which employs Mr. DeCosta, is created by the State of California and exists for the benefit of all the people in the district.

"Your resolution suggested that commissioners be appointed who have, or whose employers have, no interest which could conflict with their durties on the commission.

"While we do not believe that this can be carried out to the extent asked, we find that because of his employment Mr. DeCosta especially well fits your requirements. Neither he nor any officer of the East Bay Municipal Utility District can in any way benefit from his membership on the commission. Indeed, he serves the public in both capacities."

AFTER THE LETTER had been read, Mrs. Byron Bole of 15 La Encinal told the supervisors that their answer made DeCosta the issue rather than good planning and so missed the point of the Orinda Association resolution.

"The people of Orinda want a well-planned, integrated community," she said. "We want a master plan that the people can approve of. The East Bay Municipal Utility District owns the heart and center of our community. No matter how much they sell that property for, it could never benefit the people as much as to have some of that property set aside for cultural and civic uses."

Referring to the proposal by Orinda groups for relocation of San Pablo Dam Road behind the Village, Mrs. Bole stated:

"WE ARE CONCERNED for the safety of our children. Whether you say so or not, a four-lane highway through the center of the Orinda Village and in front of the Orinda School is bad planning.

"It won't cost nearly as much to do it right—now or in the near future—as it will cost if you do it wrong now and have to do it all over again in 10 years.

"Orinda can be one of the outstanding communities in Contra Costa County or it can be a most horrible example of bad planning, and it's up to you gentlemen and the Planning Commission to decide which it's going to be."

Cummings pointed out that no decision on the EBMUD rezoning application had yet been made and that the Planning Commission had not yet made a recommendation.

THE SUPERVISORS' answer to the association declared that the county board "has always paid a great deal of attention to the Planning Commission" and that "the appointment of members to it is a real concern to the board."

"We desire to have the best possible type of citizen on the commission," the communication continued. "As you know, this is a civic duty which calls for much sacrifice and little reward. It is often difficult to get well-qualified men to serve at this nearly thankless but essential task.

"We are inclined to the opinion that if we followed exactly the specification set out in your resolution —neither he nor his employer to have any possible interest in any matter that might come before the Planning Commission—we would be

EBMUD Land Sale On Dam Road Nearly $92,500

The contingent sale of three parcels of East Bay Municipal Utility District property along the west side of San Pablo Dam Road will amount to nearly $92,500 when completed, it was disclosed yesterday by EBMUD General Manager John W. McFarland.

The agreements with EBMUD and the purchasers, Standard Oil Company, Shell Oil Company and Robert H. Bolman and Dr. W. M. Caygill, are contingent upon the land being rezoned Retail Business.

Here is the breakdown on the parcels and the individual sales price of each, according to McFarland:

Shell Oil, 180 front feet on San Pablo Dam Road, $34,000.

Standard Oil, 250 front feet on San Pablo Dam Road, $40,500. These two properties were sold on a front footage basis.

The property sought by Bolman and Dr. Caygill is about four acres and will be sold for just under $18,000. It was not sold on a front footage basis, McFarland said, because it has no true front on San Pablo Dam Road. The frontage is over a Pacific Gas and Electric Company easement.

McFarland stated that EBMUD would make no more contingent sales in the area and that remainder of the EBMUD land in the area will not be sold until rezoning is completed.

He added that EBMUD is not now holding any land for the Mormon Church.

Orinda's Study Of Incorporation Starts Next Week

Orinda's $800 incorporation study by the Coro Foundation of San Francisco will get under way next week, Chairman Frank Cayting of the Orinda Association's incorporation study committee announced yesterday.

Cayting said that Ken Norris, director of Coro's consulting service department, will "set up shop" at the Contra Costa County Taxpayers Association office at 620 Las Juntas, Martinez, where he has arranged for office space.

"It will be convenient for Norris to start work in Martinez because he will have easy access to various kinds of information which will be essential in the study," Cayting explained.

FIRST PHASE of Norris' work will be obtaining of an accurate description of the area. The Orinda School District will be considered as the area for the incorporation study.

Included in data regarding area description will be boundaries, population estimate, assessed valuation and social-economic factors.

"After he has been on the project about a week, Norris will probably meet again with our committee," Cayting said.

The committee and Norris conferred April 8 at Ramsay Underwood's real estate office. Committee members are Cayting, Underwood, John Den Dulk, Tevis Thompson, Berton S. Kohler, William C. Corbett and Harold R. Jones.

AT MONDAY NIGHT'S meeting of the association's Civic Affairs Committee at Orinda School, Chairman Tevis Thompson reported that the association board had voted to pay the initial $400 of the incorporation study fee and that it is soliciting the various neighborhood associations, the service clubs and the Chamber of Commerce for the other $400.

"Donations have been coming in, but there is still some distance to go," Thompson told the delegates. "I hope you bring this matter before required to appoint merely nonentities to the Planning Commission. This would not be in the public interest.

"WE LIVE IN a representative government, and appointive offices, as well as elective offices, ought to be representative. It is the opinion of the Board of Supervisors that the execution of their appointed task ought to be the standard by which these men are judged.

"In this connection, we wish to point out that all of the planning commissioners serve at the pleasure of the majority of the Board of Supervisors. When the majority of the board is at any time dissatisfied with the conduct of any commissioner, his resignation may be required.

"In reply to your inquiry, the Board of Supervisors at this time expresses its satisfaction with the present Planning Commission."

MRS. BOLE observed that "a lot of people in Orinda want to know" the reason for desire to sell the Crossroads area property "right now" and "who is exerting so much pressure to get the sale over."

She added that she couldn't understand why EBMUD "is in such a hurry to sell it right now."

"I DON'T THINK it's because they have to have the money immediately," she said. "In 1951 they made a net profit of $4,900,000. In 1952 they made a net profit of $7 million. Their surplus as of June 30, 1952, was $69,000,000. They evidently aren't pressed for the money right now and could wait six months or so for the master plan."

Mrs. Bole later told Mrs. Mitchell Farrar, temporary chairman of the Women's Planning League of Contra Costa County, that she had obtained those figures from a report which Glen Whalen, certified public accountant, had made at the request of the Southwest Contra Costa County Water District.

Mrs. Farrar and Mrs. James G. Hupp were at the board session as observers for the Women's Planning League.

A PROTEST LETTER from Dr. Elizabeth Jolly of 8 Southwood Drive against the rezoning application of Dr. Wilbert Thomas for Lot 42 at the southeast corner of Moraga Highway and Northwood Drive was referred by the supervisors to the Planning Commission.

Dr. Thomas seeks Retail Business or Neighborhood Business zoning for the property, instead of the present Residential-Agricultural. Dr. Jolly stated that such rezoning would result in property value depreciation for surrounding homes and would set a precedent.

Over 1000 Hear Easter Sermon

More than 1000 worshippers participated in Easter Services of the Orinda Community Church last Sunday, according to the report of Willis C .Branch, senior deacon of the congregation.

Clear balmy weather encouraged those who greeted the day at the outdoor special service conducted by members of the Pilgrim Fellowship. The large white cross erected on the hilltop and trumpet selections by Mario Guarneri highlighted the early gathering, which was followed by a youth breakfast at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Drews.

Choirs entirely filling the stage of the Orinda Theater sang five anthems in the regular morning worship held there at 10:30. "The man with the bomb may come to say to the world 'Closing time, gentlemen', but the man with the cross comes to offer 'opening time' to all who receive him," said the Rev. Fred R. Morrow in his Easter sermon on the theme, "The Great Amen."

Members of the ushering staff regretted that over-filling of the theater made it necessary for some to be turned away.

The new president stated that during his administration he would recommend emphasis on aid to those wishing to form new independent banks the association's serving as a clearing house for independent banks wishing to sell to those interested in carrying on independent banking, and encouragemet of an active public relations program for independent banking.

Parents to Get Trees for $1

This weekend mothers in Sleepy Hollow will ring the doorbell of each family with children in that school and ask for $1 toward a landscape fund to beautifiy their school.

In return they will be given a little "family tree" to be worn to open house Tuesday.

Other parents will find a booth at the open house where they may give their $1 for landscaping and get their miniature "family tree."

Carol Jean Earle Is Representative

Carol Jean Earle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Earle of 142 Crestview Drive, was recently elected the National Representative of the Y. W. C. A. at the University of Colorado.

As the National Representative, she will attend the national convention next year and make reports to her group.

Carol, who is a sophomore at the university, is majoring in sociology. She is a member of Alpha Delta Pi, national social sorority.

Her other activities have included Associated Students of the University of Colorado Public Relations Committee, Colorado University Days committees, secretary of the Military Ball and sophomore counselor in the freshman dormitories.

Mothers Elect Officers, Think Of Fluoridation

The Orinda Mothers Club has taken under advisement the matter of support for the fluoridation program following the talk of Dr. Zachary Stadt, County Health Department dentist Tuesday afternoon at Orinda School.

Dr. Stadt was introduced by Dr. Ronald Light of Orinda.

The following new officers were elected: President, Mrs. Coleman Huntley; vice president, Mrs. Vernon Axelson; recording secretary, Mrs. Jane Seaman; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Charles Lohse, and treasurer, Mrs. George Drysdale.

A report was given on the recent production of Absurdia in Suburbia and it is estimated that approximately $2000 will be turned over to the schools.

Retiring officers are: President, Mrs. Miles Sutliffe; vice president, Mrs. Coleman Huntley; treasurer, Mrs. Reese Paine; recording secretary, Mrs. Earl Wilder and corresponding secretary, Mrs. Carl Pedersen.

Nursery School Lays Plans for Annual Dance

Members of the committee arranging the Orinda Nursery School spring informal dance are announced today by Mrs. C. W. Brock Jr., general chairman.

Mrs. David Lewis is general ticket chairman and tickets to the annual benefit may be obtained from her at Orinda 2758, or from members of the nursery school.

The dance, traditionally one of Orinda's largest social affairs of the year, will be held Saturday, May 8, at the Diablo Country Club. Dinner will be served at 9 p.m. and dancing to the music of Gordon Heche's orchestra will continue until 2 a.m.

Poster chairman will be Mrs. George F. Fraser and prize chairman is Mrs. Paul Slattery, Mrs. Brock said.

The dance will benefit the nonprofit, cooperative nursery school.

Mrs. Tosca Fazio to Work for Baldwin

Mrs. Dorothy Bentley, Orinda chairman of the "Baldwin for Congress Committee," announced today that Mrs. Tosca Fazio of Owl Hill Road will head "Democrats for Baldwin" in the Orinda area.

Bulldozer Rips Telephone Cable, Cuts Service

At 8:15 a.m. Wednesday a bulldozer engaged in highway construction work along the Orinda Crossroads ripped up about 25 feet of Pacific Telephone cable, putting between 75 and 150 telephones out of commission.

The cable serves subscribers in the Charles Hill area and some in Lafayette. E. G. Miller, Pacific Telephone manager, said this was newly placed cable to accommodate new highway construction in Orinda.

"The bulldozer that did the damage was preparing fill to widen the road," he said. "All available telephone crews were immediately dispatched to the scene, where they worked continuously on the break, replacing and splicing the ripped cable."

He added that the section of cable had to be completely replaced. Service was restored beginning at 8 p.m. Wednesday night and complete restoration was accomplished later that same evening.

There was no estimate on the cost of the damage.

Work Started on New Water Main Along Miner Rd.

East Bay Municipal Utility District crews this week started the installation of an important new 16-inch diameter water main along Miner Road in Orinda, John W. McFarland, EBMUD general manager, announced.

According to McFarland, the new main will supplement an existing 6-inch main and will connect the new five million gallon Los Altos reservoir to the district's distribution system.

Later, this line will connect with another one million gallon reservoir to be built near the present Las Aromas tank.

A PORTION of this 16-inch line will also be installed along parts of Camino Sobrante, Oak Arbor Road and Las Aromas.

Because of the narrowness of Miner Road, Camino Sobrante and the other streets, it will be necessary, McFarland pointed out, to close portions of these streets between the hours of 8:30 a. m. and 4 p. m. Work will take place on only one street at a time, leaving the others open for a free flow of traffic.

Special arrangements have been made to accommodate the residents along the construction route at all times, McFarland said. Signs and arrows directing motorists to the necessary detour routes will be placed at intersections and other points.

"THE RAPID GROWTH in Orinda and vicinity has made this water service improvement necessary," McFarland said. "We know there will be some inconvenience to the people in the vicinity of Miner Road and Camino Sobrante as a result of this important work. We apologize for this.

"The district is doing everything possible to reduce the inconvenience to the people of Orinda to a minimum. All possible steps will be taken to complete the main installation at the earliest possible date."

Army Training

Army PFC Michael Elvidge, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Elvidge of Orinda, is now at Fort Bragg, N. C., where his unit, the 379th Ordnance Maintenance and Supply Battalion, will take part in Exercise Flash Burn.

Starting on April 19, the large-scale Army maneuver will test tactics and training of 60,000 soldiers in a simulated battle involving everything from guided missiles and atomic cannon to defense against bacteriological warfare.

Elvidge, a clerk-typist in the battalion, entered the Army in June 1953 and was last stationed at Camp Roberts where he completed basic training.

$1000 Poodle Has Gone Astray Here

"Oh where has my little dog gone" is the serious plaint of William Powell, 36 Valley View Drive.

However, that is not exactly the case, because the "little dog" was not his . . . it was a $1000 miniature French poodle with a Dutch-cut trim who is accustomed to roam in the streets of New York.

HE IS OWNED by Mr. and Mrs. William L. Powell, the younger Powell's parents, and was left in the Orindan's care while the parents visited in the Bay Area.

JoJo wandered off to sniff some interesting weeds Monday night and he didn't return. The younger Powells have sniffed at the mountain lion stories which have made the rounds of Orinda and prefer to believe that someone has just made friends with JoJo and will return him when his rightful owners become known.

IN THE MEANTIME, there is a $1000 dark gray poodle wandering around, about 13 inches high, and distinguished by a choker-chain collar.

Anybody seen him?

Richard Spight in Journalism Group

Richard Spight has been elected president of Sigma Delta Chi, national professional fraternity for men in journalism at Oregon State College.

Publication of the Fusser's Guide, student directory, presenting awards to outstanding beginning journalists and promoting interest in journalism as a profession are group activities.

Spight was also appointed assistant editor of the Barometer, OSC daily student paper. In this position he will aid the editor in administrative duties.

A junior in agriculture, Spight is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lindsey H. Spight, 135 Orinda Highway.

Candidates to Appear at Party

Close to 1000 people are expected to attend the Republican Candidates Day May 1 at the Lindsey Spight home, 135 Orinda Highway, according to Mrs. J. Aubrey Swee, general chairman.

Sponsored by the Orinda Republican Women s'Club, the affair will be an informal coffee party from 10:30 a. m. to 4 p. m. and will be open to all Orindans regardless of registration.

BOTH COUNTY and state Republican candidates have received invitations to attend. John Baldwin, congressional candidate from the Sixth District, and Donald Doyle, incumbent assemblyman from the Tenth District, will be present all day.

There will be no admission charge, but a charge of $1 for coffee and snacks will be asked. Proceeds from the refreshments will go to a campaign expense funds according to Mrs. Thomas Barrows, club president.

CANDIDATES' DAY chairmen are: hospitality, Mrs. Thomas St. Hill; coffee, Mrs. Julian Unruh; serving, Mrs. James Irwin; lunch for candidates, Mrs. George Cook; snacks, Mrs. Frank Teasdel; campaign material, Mrs. King Wilkin; treasurer, Mrs. Marvin Kennedy; tickets, Mrs. Donald Krotz; garden arrangements, Mrs. William Wilson; decorations, Mrs. Walter Cole, and parking, Ed Nelson.

Study to Start On Incorporaton your organiaztions for action in the next few weeks."

Lindsey Spight reported that the Orinda Improvement Association, Inc., had voted to contribute to the fund, with the amount left to the discretion of the group's officers.

Cayting said yesterday that a $400 down payment had already been made, as per the terms of the contract with Coro. The remaining $400 is to be paid upon delivery of the report.

THE SURVEY IS expected to be completed by mid-June but compilation of the report is not anticipated until September or October.

After the obtaining of an accurate description of the area, the survey will concentrate on three other major phases, in the following order, according to Cayting:

1. Analysis of services. (a) Retention and dissolution of agencies. (b) Advantages and disadvantages of incorporation.

2. Legal and financial aspects of incorporation — tax rates, procedures and budgets for a modest level of government, with particular emphasis on administration, police, fire, streets and roads.

3. Summary of data, without specific recommendation.

Cayting said that Norris may have staff workers under him later in the project.

Reactivated Improver Group Has More Than 80 Members

More than 80 residents of "old Orinda," in the Country Club and Orinda Park areas, are members of the recently reactivated Orinda Improvement Association, Inc.

New president of the group is William Fleager. James G. Hupp is vice-president, Kirk Miles is secretary and Mrs. George Hickok is treasurer.

THE ORGANIZATION will have two representatives on the Civic Affairs Committee of the Orinda Association — Lindsey Spight from the section west of San Pablo Dam Road and Joe Rupley from the section east of that road. (The Orinda Association is not to be confused with the Orinda Improvement Association, Inc. The Orinda Association, formed in 1946, is the federation of various local groups throughout the entire Orinda area. The Orinda Improvement Association, Inc., governing body of Hacienda Homes, Inc., was inactive for several years, until recently.)

THE FOLLOWING are members of the Orinda Improvement Association, Inc., oldest local improvement group in the Orinda area:

EVER HEARD of glace de viande? This is a French meat extract in concentrated form, made of beef and chicken bones, long, long cooked. What a spoonful can do to bring out the rich and juicy, fine and rollicking flavor of meat! Glace de viande is the perfect answer for meat glaze, for in addition to glazing, it adds flavor and substance. We have used this product in soups and gravies and for braising too, as well as for glazing, and we wouldn't be without it. It comes in pound crocks and if kept in the refrigerator, it will last for long weeks. A mold may form on the glace, but simply scrape it off and no harm's done.

The product is the handwork of a French chef, and it is made exclusively for Maison Glass. The recipe is described as authentically French, and has a concentration ten times stronger than that of the average commercially packed beef extracts.

Beef and chicken bones are covered with water and cooked for many, many hours over low heat. Nothing is added for jellying, no caramel for coloring, no protein derivatives. The glace is made in batches of three dozen jars, and a 16-ounce crock sells for $2.25. Glace de viande is a stiff gelatinous substance so darkly brown it looks almost licorice black. One spoonful holds the highly concentrated flavor of a savory roast.

Condon Charges GOP Inaction at Campaign Dinner

More than 250 persons attended the $5 a plate Democratic Dinner in Lafayette Monday where they heard Congressman Robert L. Condon sound the opening gun in his campaign for reelection in the Sixth Congressional District.

The Republican Party and the 83rd Congress came in for heavy criticism, as Condon charged that almost no moves had been made by the Republicans.

CONDON RESERVED some of his strongest remarks for the present furore over intervention in Indo-China, saying, "There was some justification for action in Korea, where one nation, North Korea, attacked a second country, South Korea, but the situation in Indo-China is one in which natives have for years been fighting French colonials who were the wartime collaborators of the Japanese.

"Wherever native peoples in Asia have been given independence, such as in Indonesia, Burma, Thailand and India, the new independent countries have been able to control and handle Communism. Communist strength is greatest in those countries under the economic, military and political dominence of a colonial power," he said.

CONDON SAID that the question of whether the United States was to become the policeman of Asia should be debated at length in Congress, and is too important to be decided by Nixon and Dulles. Intervention in Indo-China, Condon asserted, could easily lead to World War III and total destruction.

Edward N. Munns, candidate for the 10th Assembly seat, attacked the record of absenteeism and avoidance of controversial issues by the present Republican incumbent, saying "my friends say I have a neck like a giraffe; I'm never afraid to stick it way out for the things in which I believe. I believe in the people."

Munns said that if elected he would strive to equal the record made by Condon during his four years in the Assembly.

Women Voters Plan General, Study Meets

The local League of Women Voters is holding a general meeting on Monday evening, 8 p.m., Williams Elementary School, East Street at Maple Street, Concord.

Highlight of the meeting will be a panel on Item I of the League's national agenda—"Congress and the Budget."

The panel will discuss the present budgetary procedure of Congress and its short comings; changes suggested by various sources; and some of the legislation on this problem that is now under consideration by Congress.

There will also be reports on the coming national and state conventions of the League of Women Voters, and the progress of and plans for the local group's various activities.

The study-discussion units will resume their twice monthly meetings in May. The Walnut Creek-Lafayette evening unit has changed its meeting nights to the second and fourth Wednesdays of each month. The combined afternoon unit will meet on the first and third Thursdays. They will be discussing the structure and functions of local governments, including cities, unincorporated areas, special districts, and county governments, with special emphasis on the areas in which the members live.

Interested women are invited to attend any of these meetings or to call Catherine Long MU 2-9683 or Margaret Smith YE 4-8738.

County Young GOP Group Organizes

The first meeting of the new officers of the Contra Costa County Young Republicans was held Tuesday at Jack Gillan's home in Pleasant Hill.

In the absence of Chairman Jim Moriarty, George Jedenoff, vice-chairman from Concord, presided. Joe Creighton, State Young Republican president, speaking on the "School of Politics," sponsored by the Young Republicans, to be held in Napa May 1, explained that this meeting's purpose was to educate people on practical politics such as the use of stickers, bumper strips, doorbell ringing, precinct work, etc.

Loy Dickinson, state Young Republican regional vice president, came from Stockton to give board members some pointers on the organization of new groups. Plans were discussed for ways in which the Contra Costa Young Republicans can aid the United Republican Finance Committee in raising money for the coming campaign.

Those present were: Presidents Dr. Ron Light, Orinda; Ed Mertens, Richmond-El Cerrito; Dean Newnan, Harold Little and Bill Schaaf, Sobrante Valley; Bill Winslow, Walnut Creek, and Elaine Hammill, secretary; Kay McGuire, treasurer, and Don Kientz, past president.

Drama Leads to Be On the Air

The Dramateurs presenting Aldous Huxley's "Giaconda's Smile" under the direction of Carl Rasmussen May 7, 8, 14 and 15 at the Whittier School, corner of Virignia and Milvia Streets in Berkeley, will take to the air waves Sunday when leading man and lady, Bruce Winkworth of Orinda and Dorothy Hanfor dof Lafayette, will be interviewed by Dean Maddox over Station KFRC from the Cliff House in San Francisco at 11 a.m.

May 2 is the date set for a Dramateur breakfast at The Willows in Orinda and an interview with Jerry Morton and Max Baer over Station KLX at 1 la.m.

Dramateur producer Betty Apgar has organized a business committee of Betty Reynolds, Lou Warner and Aylwin Probert who have arranged for a Band Wagon Medicine Show of music, girls and tickets to tour Orinda and Lafayette tomorrow and May 1. For those who miss the band wagon, tickets will be on sale at Breuners in Oakland, Hinks Department Store in Berkeley, The Artists Market in Lafayette and in Orinda with ticket chairman Jane Steele, phone Orinda 3317.

World Federalist Speaker Urges Laws to Halt War

At a discussion meeting on "The Hydrogen Bomb and Individual Responsibility," Raymond Bacon, former United World Federalists vice president, stressed the urgency for people to give serious thought to means of controlling the hydrogen bomb at a meeting of the local Federalist group April 14 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Gambetta, Concord.

Bacon offered the substitution of law for anarchy in international relations as the only solution to the problem of war. "Those who feel that somehow we can muddle through our international problems as we have done in the past have a very unrealistic view of the present day crisis," declared Bacon.

"We must create two necessary international laws—one to forbid the waging of aggressive war and one to make it illegal to prepare for war. The next problem is to devise a system of making these laws effective.

"This can be accomplished by amending the Charter of the United Nations so that a legisuature to enact international law, a court to interpret the law and an executive branch with a police force to enforce the law are established," he said.

4-H Clubs to Hold Field Day

The annual 4-H Field Day at the Contra Costa Fairgrounds in Antioch tomorrow will primarily be devoted to judging demonstrations.

Everyone is asked to bring a picnic lunch for noon. The 4-H Council, under the direction of R. R. Strudwick, will sell soft drinks. Leaders to help with this booth are needed.

Judging will be in various classes of agriculture and home economics.

Please write us news about your family, friends, clubs and interesting events. If you see something important, call at once.

Women's Planning League Hears Commissioner, Urges Modern Approach

"County and city planning must be flexible; it must be fore long-range development with scientific analyses of probable population density and non-wasteful land uses." So spoke Vivian Osbourne Marsh, Berkeley city planning commissioner when she addressed the Women's Planning League of Contra Costa County April 14.

Mrs. Marsh, noted planning commissioner, continued: "We, the commissioners, are the people and of the people. Citizens of a community rightfully expect their commissioners ot protect their property values, to bring sound, economical planning which includes making of the community an attractive place to live with all advantages of modern planning."

Mrs. Sherley Davis, secretary of Concord City Planning Commission, spoke of the new master plan of that city, and Mrs. Mitchell Farrar, league chairman, read the report compiled by a committee of the Contra Costa Planning League, which was appointed to study the "progress report" of Contra Costa County Planning Commission.

The report said, in part: "Nowhere is there a clear statement as to how the job of preparing a General Plan for the county will be undertaken. Unfortunately a less-than-modern approach was originally proposed and although a new consultant has been hired, no significant change in method can be discerned.

"Apparently the piecemeal approach, that of planning for one part of the environment without reference to all others, has been accepted. No objective, principles or standards have been developed or adopted by the commissioners.

"While some progress has been made in a few fields such as in shoreline planning, it has been without reference to future population estimates and a complete study of related land uses."

Acalanes Tax Limit Group Calls Meet

A newly formed volunteer Parents Tax Limit Committee today joined with the Acalanes High School District Board of Trustees in encouraging community organization representatives and the general public to attend a public meeting 8 p.m., Wednesday, in the Acalanes library to discuss the need for the $1.75 tax limit to be presented to the voters of the high school district May 21.

More than 100 letters inviting community organization representation at the meeting have been sent out. Trustees plan to discuss district problems and answer questions concerning their action in calling for the new limit.

Parents from both the Acalanes Parents Club and Las Lomas Parents Club, Los Amigos, have formed a joint committee, The Parents Tax Limit Committee, to inform the general public of the need for a new tax limit, and the operational and building problems of the high school district.

Members of the Parents Tax Limit Committee are co-chairman John Laverty, Walnut Creek; Victor Johnson, Lafayette; Mrs. Alex Morris, Orinda.

Other committeemen are Mrs. Lucille Mauzy, Carl Noecker, Fred Foster, Ted MacFarlane, Ben McFeeljey, Bob Riegg, all of Walnut Creek; Mrs. Ruth Schirmer, Mrs. Ralph Ong, of Lafayette; and Mrs. Paul Kops, Don Hunter, Mrs. Donald Krotz, Mrs. W. C. Branch and George Eberhardt of Orinda.

Scout Council To See Film

There will be a council meeting for the Diablo Area Girl Scouts April 28 in the multi-purpose room at Las Lomas High School in Walnut Creek. All parents and friends interested in Scouting are invited to attend.

Bar Association Seeks Municipal Court Service

Municipal court service for this area has been requested by the Central Contra Costa Bar Association in a letter to the County Board of Supervisors.

The only municipal court in the county is now in Richmond, the letter written by Chairman David Holstrom of the Procedure Committee pointed out.

Because of this, both attorneys and clients have to travel there for any cases in municipal jurisdiction. A population of 40,000 is required for the court, and this exists in both Walnut Creek and Concord Townships.

Asking for the service at least one day a week, Holstrom pointed out Walnut Creek City Council chambers, not used during the daytime, would be available.

Dad Time Will Dash One Hour In Nothing Flat

Olympic sprinters will have cause to envy Father Time at 1 a.m. Sunday, for at that precise moment he will dash to 2 a.m. in nothing flat. That's just another way of reminding you that Daylight Saving Time goes into effect at 1 a.m. Sunday, when clocks and watches are to be moved ahead to 2 a.m.

If you go to bed before 1 a.m., it will be a good idea to move your timepieces ahead an hour then. In that way, you'll be avoiding the embarrassment of showing up an hour late for a Sunday appointment.

Pacific Greyhound Lines' bus schedules will operate on Daylight Saving Time.

Don't fret unduly about the "lost" hour. You'll get it back when Standard Time returns on the last Sunday of September.

Double Feature Program for Don Parents Monday

A double feature program is set for members of the Acalanes' Parents Club when they meet at 8 p. m. Monday in the school gymnasium, President Mrs. Donald Krotz reports.

Parents will first gather in the gymnasium to pretend that they have been buying cakes for the scholarship fund, and to hear a report on results of this annual mythical cake sale.

FOLLOWING THIS, Mrs. Krotz said, they will pretend they are somewhere between 14 and 18 years old again, and will be whisked through the typical school schedule that their children endure daily.

With ten-minute class periods, and five minutes between classes, they will visit every room on their particular offspring's routine.

Those having two children in Acalanes will divide their program — father going through one child's day and mother the other, Mrs. Krotz explained.

AFTER THE PARENTS have decided for themselves whether junior's day is as rough as he says it is, they will return to the school cafeteria for refreshments.

Parents will make out their children's schedule on cards at home, according to Victor Johnson, program chairman. This program has been planned instead of the conventional open house of public schools' week, he explained.

Mott Urges Park System be Set Up for County

William Penn Mott, Jr., superintendent of Parks for Oakland, speaking before the Contra Costa Park and Recreation Council at a recent meeting in Pittsburg, urged the people present to take action to see that parks are set up in Contra Costa County.

Mott said, "We owe this to our children to see they get some of the privileges which we have enjoyed."

He warned that by the time people realize the full problem of parks, the property will be gone, and he urged that areas must be set aside now. He also praised the people of Antioch for the work they have besen doing on parks.

A discussion was held of the more than 75 acres of Columbia Park given to the county by the state in Pittsburg. It was felt that an investigation of whether it would be suitable for a park site should be made.

Alvin A. Burton of Walnut Creek, president, in reporting on the progress made in two and a half years by this citizens' group, said that the supervisors are now considering forming a park commission.

The council has urged that funds be set aside in the 1954-55 budget for land acquisition.

Some 70 Girl Scout Troops To Show Skills Tomorrow

Almost 70 Girl Scout Troops will participate in the "Girl Scouts in Action" demonstration of the Diablo Valley Council at Acalanes High School tomorrow from 1 to 5 p. m.

Mrs. Margaret Duling is chairman of the program committee and is assisted by Mesdames Mary Walker, O. E. Estensen, George Hearne, Virginia Horton, Jennie Harvey and Ellen Wikander.

DIVIDED INTO four divisions symbolizing the aims of the Girl Scout Program, troops will present demonstrations and exhibits showing their work.

In the "Citizens Here and Abroad" section, kits of Korea, game and doll kits for children of migrant workers, international travel and a curve bar display will be presented.

In "Fun and Exploration in the Out of Doors," fun, outdoor cooking, games, campcraft, rocks and minerals, camping, wild flower prints and knots will be seen.

"ADVENTURING in the Arts" will offer folk dancing, dramatics, television, pottery and basketry, ceramics, leatherwork, crafts, leaf printing, photography, art, copper planters, bookbinding, stencils, sequins handwork and blueprinting.

In "You and Your Home," sewing, good grooming, crocheting, handwork, first aid, table settings, child care and a curve bar exhibit will be shown.

DAA Show Top Pictures Travel

A traveling show of 30 pictures from the Diablo Art Association Spring Show, just concluded at Las Lomas High School is now on exhibit at the Martinez Library, where it will remain until May 4. Pictures selected to be shown were chosen by popular vote.

The pictures which placed highest were: "High Peaks" by Mary Lee Parker; "Tidal Marsh" by Elise Albright; "Golden Autumn" by Hazel Elling, and "Judi and Schlitzi" by Roberta Fittinger. In the ceramic division Lou Peresenyi and Frank Smith placed highest.

Is This Your Shangri-La?

16.7 Acre Suburban Ranch & Furnished Home in Reliez Valley

Perhaps this place is the Shangri-La mentioned in "Lost Horizons." Perhaps it's the one our late President Roosevelt talked about. Maybe—just maybe it's the Shangri-La YOU'VE been looking for.

Peaceful quiet among God's animals—the deer, quail, dove, fox, pheasant and a hundred varieties of other colorful birds. The clean, cool green in the country. You can hoop and holler all you like and no one is disturbed. Yet you are only ten minutes ride from Lafayette and Walnut Creek. Schools for your children are right on your back steps. School buses go by your front door.

In Any Case Here's What You Get:

On this sixteen acres is a large house with 2 bedrooms, 1 bath (ample room to expand with little inconvenience), 20x22 honky-tonk room with built in bar and music box, big living room with beam ceiling, separate dining room; three room guest cottage (excellent rental), huge outdoor barbecue and patio area, four stall garage, private gasoline storage, barn with 2 box stalls, tack and work room, oodles and oodles of storage space, chicken house, rabbit hutches, lifetime mastic on all buildings, fire alarm system in all buildings, P.G.&E., East Bay water plus 2 active wells, water piped to all necessary areas, family orchard, driveway all around the house, rustically landscaped, taxes, maintenance low.

Plenty of pasture for horses, couple head or so of cattle, room for swimming pool, vegetable garden, six acres can be considered for subdividing. All furniture, garden tools, power lawn mower, power weed mower, Windolph model "C" tractor, double disc, rototiller, deep freeze, electric brooder, etc., are included.

EXCELLENT TERMS

Owner will sell all or part of $21,000 equity, will exchange from ½ to entire equity for quality home or income property (no acreage). Total price of this suburban ranch is $45,000. Owner's injury demands an immediate sale. Phone YEllowstone 4-7083 for appointment.

"We heated water for 104 baths for only 78¢"

reports Mrs. Frank Jenkins, of Stockton

"When we moved West," says Mrs. Jenkins, "we soon found gas and electricity are much cheaper here. Now we use them more than ever . . . for more comfortable living."

Look how much cheap gas and electricity did for the Jenkinses in just one month

150 hours of lighting	$ 2.46
90 meals cooked (for family of 4)	.98
2250 gallons of hot water for 104 baths	.78
28 tubfuls of clothes	.30
50 hours of dishwashing	.16
daily shave, washups	.09
7 hours of scrubbing	.01
28 loads in automatic washer	.09
15 hours of hand ironing	.22
7 hours of vacuuming	.06
120 hours of television	.64
40 hours of radio	.10
150 slices of toast	.06
30 days of refrigeration	.81
2 electric clocks	.09
sunlamp	.03
mixer and waffle iron	.06
30 days of gas heating	5.50
P. G. and E. bill for the month	$12.44

Average cost per day: 41¢

Where the Jenkinses used to live, the same amount of gas and electricity would cost $38.16

Think of all the appliances in your home and all the ways they serve you. Now divide your P.G. and E. bill by the number of days in the month . . . to get the daily cost of the gas and electricity you use. Day in, day out, does anything else bring you so much good living at such small cost?

Gas and electricity are cheap in California

Pleasant Hill Civic Council Split Over Sanitary District Sewer Bond Issue

Opinion on the Central Contra Costa Sanitary District $4 million bond issue is divided in Pleasant Hill, it became apparent at a meeting of the area's Civic Council last week.

A motion to recommend against the issue by Governmental Services Co-chairman Bob Anderson received six aye votes against five noes. The measure failed, however, as a unanimous vote is required.

IN OTHER ACTION, Transportation Co-chairman Tom Shreve said Contra Costa Commuters Association reacted favorably to a proposal to reroute Greyhound buses for more service in Pleasant Hill.

However, he reported, Greyhound has not replied to a letter he wrote suggesting Oakland route buses be sent through Gregory Gardens to Pacheco and then to Concord.

The sanitary bond issue was discussed for more than an hour and a half before a vote was taken. District Engineer Gerry Horstkotte Jr. appeared at the meeting in support of the issue.

OBJECTIONS were raised by Anderson and other members who voiced the opinion that:

1. The proposed construction would primarily benefit Moraga and Orinda.

2. The proposed construction might not solve the problems of the district.

3. An outside engineering firm should be consulted for possible alternatives.

4. Alternative financing plans should be considered.

5. More time should have been allowed to properly explain the issue and a more "popular" election date, as in November, should have been chosen.

HORSTKOTTE replied the conconstruction would aid Pleasant Hill, and present plans were adopted only after considerable study of alternatives in financing and engineering.

He also pointed out 49 per cent of the sewer connections are north of Geary Road, while the area includes only 33 per cent of the assessed valuation.

BUNNYS AND STORKS

Easter bunnies and storks are foremost in the news this week.

The bunny beat the stork to Beth Sullivan's house. She is still awaiting the arrival of her baby. Have patience, Beth. Mother's Day is just around the corner.

A surprise baby shower was given Tuesday night for Jane Jewell, who expects her second child sometime near May 15. Arlene Baker and Jean Comstock were co-hostesses at the pink-and-blue party held at Arlene's house.

Neighborhood guests who attended were Ann Reddy, Jo Hess, Colleen Scammell, Jo Kleinenbroich, Gladys O'Donnell, Phylis Olwell, Elaine MacPhail, Beth Klatt, Elizabeth Girard and Mary Cantelora.

NO SURPRISE

Another surprise stork shower was scheduled the same night for Sandy Heinz who is due May 9. The guest of honor, however, has been having trouble with a sinus infection and as she would have been unable to attend, the shower (no longer a surprise) will be held next Wednesday. Margaret Powers and Betty Majors are hostessing this party.

Easter Sunday brought many guests to our fair orchards. Few families left the area to celebrate.

Betty and Bill Majors were among the few. They noted the holiday with relatives in Palo Alto.

Al and Pat Weber celebrated at Helnick's in Oakland with the Senior Webers. They employed a private dining room to accommodate 18 of the family including Al and Pat and the two children.

The Blumenfelds packed a picnic lunch and spent a foggy Easter afternoon at the zoo in San Francisco with the family.

DOIN'S AROUND

Those who stayed home for the Easter holiday entertained guests from all parts of the Bay Area.

Cliff and Ellie Gant had with them Cliff's brother, Lt. Ralph Gant and his family, recently from Sacramento. Lt. Gant just finished a tour of duty in Korea and left for San Diego last Monday after spending two days with Cliff and Ellie.

Bob and Helen Osborne entertained 10 family guests including both Bobs' and Helen's parents.

Jay and Ann Morris had breakfast Sunday morning in Walnut Creek with the three children. They then came home where Ann cooked dinner for guests from San Mateo on her new electric sove of which she is so proud.

MORE GUESTS

Ken and Jo Kleinenbroich entertained Jo's parents Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Alexander, from Dutch Flat and Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Ramos from Meadow Vista. Mrs. Alexander has spent the week with Jo and Ken. The Kleinenbroichs left yesterday to spend the coming weekend in the Sierras.

Bill and Nona Kruse had a patio dinner for 10 family guests at Easter time. Nona has had the company of her mother, Mrs. W. G. Wills of Sherman Oaks, for the past two weeks. Mrs. Wills is ending her stay here today.

Know of at least one Easter egg hunt in the neighborhood last Sunday. It was at Pat McKenzie's over our back fence. The kids came home with some of the cutest, most original Easter eggs I have ever seen. Pat says she and her mother created them. Some were decorated as bunnies, others were little frogs, clowns, helicopters and rocket ships. They were done with felt and sequins and glitter material on the hard boiled eggs.

Pat invited six little guests for three year old Jimmy to help hunt his Easter eggs.

They were Alec MacPhail, Mike Reddy, Mary Morris, Steve and Mike Blumenfeld and Jan Newman.

ANNIVERSARIES

Two anniversary celebrations have come to our attention. Walt and Colleen Scammell noted theirs with a four day trip to Squaw Valley in the Sierras. The Scammells' anniversary was April 15. Colleen also celebrated a birthday last Monday.

Al and Pat Weber celebrated their fourth anniversary with Al's parents dinner-dancing at the 365 Club in San Francisco. Al and Pat's wedding date was yesterday.

Pat leaves next Wednesday for New York. She is flying there with the two children and plans to spend at least a month with her family and friends.

WELL DONE!

Understand there was quite an ovation for the outgoing officers at last Monday's organization meeting. Bob McKenzie and his fellow officers certainly deserve it for the fine progress they have made this past year.

Reports are that the trees to be used to landscape the entrances of St. Mary's Orchards are on the way from Los Angeles. If this is so, volunteers will probably be needed to aid the landscape committee.

Special congratulations are surely in order for Cliff Gant who has edited the "Adobe Goldbricker" our Orchard newspaper.

HELP OUT NOW!

Ann Reddy asks that everyone be notified there is only one more pick-up date, May 1, for items donated to the Westival organization.

She is chairman and collector in our neighborhood and as she has no car at her disposal right now, asks that people drop off donations at her home, 3260 Camino Colorados. If this is not possible, please call Lafayette 2749. Ann's number, so that other arrangements can be made.

She reports that in addition to the booths mentioned on the Westival circular, a group of homecraft items has been added. This will include earrings, needle work (not including aprons) and anything made at home by hand.

Don't forget: May 1, at Anns' home, or call Lafayette 2749.

Canyon Callings . . .

By GLADYS SHALLY

Twenty acts signed up for "Amateur Night," held recently at Moraga School. The show, sponsored by the Moraga Mothers Club, played to a full house. Winners selected by Judges Mrs. Harriette McQuiddy, James A. Shaw and Ed Henry were as follows:

Child's single act, singer Donald Ferreira of Byron; adult single, Dolly Oldford of Danville, piano solo; children's group act, a doctor and patient playlet starring Bob Ross, Chuck Lance and Mickey Kazar and adult group prize went to actors Mr. and Mrs. Tom Carroll, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Busan, Frank Sanders and Sam Carr for their sterling performance in a gem entitled "The Fatal Quest."

Two non-participating acts entertained between changes of scenery (painted by Art Fleuti). Youthful magician Charles Coburn of Orinda and Hula dancers Mardel Carr, Ruby Pagliero, Irene Rohrer and Parlee Sanders.

Other outstanding acts included the songs and electric guitar of Peggy and Betty Galyon and Shirley Hopkins of Pittsburg and the barn dance music of the Canyon Compher family orchestra which included three-year-old Diane and her miniature drum.

DANGEROUS!

On a recent afternoon, when a 90-pound block of cement came bounding down the steep hillside behind the Homer Price home and crashed through their fence to land in young Chris' play yard, the sheriff's office was asked to investigate.

This episode (which could have proved fatal had young Chris and his playmates been in the yard) marked the climax to a series of minor rock falls (usually occurring after school hours) that have been plaguing residents of the east side of the canyon lately.

THE INVESTIGATING DEPUTY, misunderstanding directions, attempted to "navigate" a short steep side road not used during wet weather and slid off the road into a creek bed.

An Orinda tow truck summoned to haul out the deputy's car did just that—only to have the car slide back into the ditch, pulling the truck in on top of it. Some hours later, the deputy, in a rather testy frame of mind, departed in his battered car—mission unaccomplished.

Canyon School eighth graders were visitors at the American Trust Bank in Orinda March 16.

On St. Patrick's Day after school, the girls' basketball team traveled to Orinda Elementary School for a game. Although the losers, they came home impressed by the fairness of the other team, echoing the remarks made by the boys after their game—they "liked to go to the Orinda School and the kids were good sports."

KID KWIP: Dad said he was going to put a stop to this nightly fuss of getting Junior to go to bed with a brief but firm approach. Came 8 o'clock. Dad roared an emphatic "Good night, Junior." With feigned surprise, Junior mildly said, 'Oh, are YOU going to bed already, Dad?"

Lafayette Demos Assail Mitchell On Condon Issue

The following statement was made by the executive committee of the Lafayette Democratic Club concerning the letter of National Chairman Stephen Mitchell about Congressman Robert Condon.

"We are amazed by the gratuitous action of National Chairman Mitchell in announcing he will withhold support of Congressman Robert Condon. This attempt by a national party official to interfere in the selection of a candidate for local office and to override the expressed wishes of the Democrats of this district is unprecedented and unwise.

"BOB CONDON'S problem is not a 'personal' one; it is simply whether a well-planned smear campaign, consisting of groundless accusations and innuendoes, unsupported by a shred of proof, can succeed in driving a man from public life.

"This is a problem all Americans must face up to. The Democrats of Contra Costa County are not afraid of a fight on this issue.

"We do not consider Bob Condon expendable. His record has been made in Washington, where the New York Times called him the outstanding freshman Congressman and in Contra Costa County where he has lived and worked for years.

"THE SAME charges now advanced against him were thoroughly aired in three elections. The voters of this county have shown what they think of unsupported charges by returning Bob Condon to public office each time."

Deer Troubles? Here's the Latest Word!

Have Orinda residents received the last word on deer control from the County Board of Supervisors?

Supervisor Jacob Frederickson of Antioch recommended, "Let us spray."

By the time the complaint of W. Sayer Snook, 80 La Espiral, reached the supervisors the number of complaints had risen to three, all complaining that the gentle animals were masticating lovely Orinda gardens.

FREDERICKSON commented that his brother-in-law has had great success in spraying his trees with a chemical compounded to keep the wildlife away.

So, the supervisors agreed, upon recommendation of Frederickson, that any future complaints of the same or similar nature will be referred to the county agricultural commissioner.

HOWEVER, SNOOK said this decision was "very disappointing."

Agricultural Commissioner Arthur Seeley has prepared a mimeographed pamphlet for distribution to the embattled gardeners.

"I HAVE SPRAYED with deer repellent and have had the deer visit the night after the plants have been sprayed," Snook wrote.

"It is almost impossible to keep both flowers and fruit trees sprayed without devoting almost all one's time to it between rains."

He suggested the Board of Supervisors "take some definite steps yourselves" and urged a survey to determine whether the deer problem is increasing in Orinda.

Masons Award Third Degree

Del Randall of Lafayette received the Third Degree of Masonry Tuesday night when Orinda and Acalanes Lodges joined at the Veterans Memorial Building in Lafayette for the rites.

Richard E. Floegel officiated, leading the Orinda Degree team which included Senior Warden Vernon Patterson and Junior Warden Stewart Wade.

J. Harold McCrum, master of the Acalanes group, was assisted by Senior Warden Bayard Burnett and Junior Warden Donald Fibush.

The lodges will not meet next week as members observe Public Schools Week.

Mrs. Westfall Off for Europe

Enplaning tomorrow morning for an extended trip to Europe will be Mrs. Frank Westfall of Hough Avenue.

After flying by United Airlines to Washington, D.C., Mrs. Westfall will visit in historical Williamsburg. From the nation's capital the traveler will go to New York City where she will be joined by her sister-in-law, Mrs. Frank Sanborn of Kelso, Washington.

MRS. WESTFALL and Mrs. Sanborn will sail aboard the new liner, The United States, for England, April 30. After five days in London and surrounding country, they will go to the continent where they plan to visit in Holland and Germany.

A side trip to Salzburg, Austria, is being planned in which the Lafayette tourists will visit Martin Stow, whose home is there. Stow is in government service in the Austrian city at the present time.

Stopovers are also being scheduled for Paris, Switzerland and Italy. In Naples they will visit with Mrs. Westfall's daughter, Jane Ann.

Miss Westfall is studying at the Naples Zoological Station on a Fullbright Scholarship which was awarded to her last year following a year's graduate research work at the University of North Carolina.

JANE ANN, who is a graduate of Acalanes High School and the College of Pacific, also did graduate work at Mills College.

Following their visit to Italy, Mrs. Westfall and Mrs. Sanborn plan to tour the Scandinavian peninsulas, later meeting Miss Westfall for the return trip to the United States.

Jane plans to pursue her work toward a doctor's degree at the University of California next year.

Korea Clothes Drive On Until Tuesday; U.S. Sergeant's Letter Stresses Need

With the drive extended through next Tuesday, Lafayette residents responded generously this week to the local Clothes for Korea drive of the American Friends Service Committee.

The depot at the front store of the Suburban Shops, 2306 Mt. Diablo Boulevard, in east Lafayette, is open from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. daily except Sunday.

Reason for extension of the drive to 5 p.m. Tuesday is that children at the local schools did not receive notices of the campaign until this week, due to last week's Easter vacation, Mrs. John Davis, general chairman, pointed out. The drive started last Saturday.

SCHOOL CHILDREN can bring contributions from home to their schools, where pickup is made daily.

Mrs. Davis reported that the Lafayette Business and Professional Women's Club, at the urging of President Ethel Fowden, has given a laarge amount of clothing.

Pointing up the urgent need for clean, sturdy used clothing and shoes for Korean refugees was a letter received by Alice M. Smith, publicity chairman, from her son-in-law, Sergeant Fred David Meyer of the U.S. Army's Quartermaster Corps, woh until recently was in Korea and is now in Tokyo.

UN-EGGS-PECTED HUNT

The impromptu egg hunt that was held up here last Sunday afternoon probably sent the poor Easter bunny out for aspirin. Before the clarion was sounded, eggs were hidden over a large area several kilometers down the back road; then the moppets were advised of the goings-on

They came running with baskets and sacks and several canine friends who, in spite of supposedly delicate smelling apparatus, were no help whatever.

Alex Scobey was winner by a large margin, but it was hard to determine just how many eggs he really found because he ate them as fast as he picked them up. And if he wasn't a bilious boy by nightfall, he's a strongly constituted character, indeed.

What really made the hunt a screw-ball affair, though, was the arrival of several hunters after the thing was over. What to do? The Solomon of the party settled the dilemna by confiscating a few of the eggs from the first bunch, hiding them again, and turning the kids loose for the second time! I tell you, those eggs had quite a going over before the revelry ended.

Some of the searchers who could be seen over the mustard and the wild flowers were Pamela Wallace and her older sister — also her little Scotty, who became lost in the floral growth — all four junior Johnsons, Stevie MacLeod, Debra Piva, the Scobey youngsters, Neel Westerman — oh, well, you get the idea.

SYMMETRY'S SAVED

The last two houses at the top of the hill, on the other side of the street from us, have caused a lot of discussion around here. The reason might amuse you.

You see, the stork is expected at every other house on that side of the road, starting with the Lou Biegels at the top and continuing for quite a few paces down the hill.

Consequently, when the two homes beyond the Biegels were sold recently, we couldn't help speculating about the fact that the euphony of the blessed event situation was going to be ruined by the new residents.

So what d'ya know — the people moved into the top house last week, and they have a June date with the stork! What's more, we understand that the foks who, by the time you read this, will be neighbors between them and the Biegels, haven't.

Therefore, it's still every other house, and the symmetry's safe — for the nonce, anyhow.

THE NEWCOMERS

About these new folks: Mona and Bob Piva and Debra, aged four. Moved out from Oakland, where Bob's with Pabco Paint Company. He is currently engaged in applying a scythe to what used to be a fine green lawn — and will be again, he vows.

Mona did a double take when she first saw Lilis Biegel. Seems she was once a pupil of Lilis' in high school at the start of L.'s teaching career. The stork will drop his bundles at their houses just about the same time in June.

"WHEN YOU SAY THAT—"

The George Merritts, the Lou Biegels, the Henry Swabs, and we are about to launch a bridge game, starting tomorrow night at Merrit's and continuing at monthly intervals for as long as we can stand it

Only condition placed on the get-together is that the gals may lay their pistols on the table beside them during play. First fellow to growl about his wife's bid gets it right between the eyes.

AVA'S ZOO

For Sale: One camel, one baby elephant, one seal, and a nice new horse. Cheap. Ava Westerna, who is going to head the exceptional child program at Lafayette School next year, is forced to rid herself of the above inanimate animals on account of she won't have room for them in her new set-up. Don't think they're toy-size vertebrates, though, 'cause they're not. The youngsters in her kindergarten class ride on them.

PRETTY PLEASE

There is only one more Westival Pick-up — May 1, Lafayette School, 1 to 3 p.m.! Come on, now, girls — GIVE! If you can't get down to the school, get in touch with your neighborhood representative. In our case, it's Catherine Inskip, Lafayette 3201. She'll arrange to get your stuff picked up.

We need lots more records, white elephants, toys, children's patterns.

The elephants may be big or little — furniture would be welcome.

Two bikes have already been donated to the toy department. Anyone have any more?

Don't put it off! Go right now and get out the things you can part with — not just the Sweet Drivers, but EVERYBODY. Nell Neill says we gotta get going!

THE WAYWARD BUS

We've lost our school bus service to the top of the hill. Of course, we're going to try and get it back, but at the moment the youngsters are again making the long hike down the mountain in the morning and up it in the afternoon. (Or mothers are pressed into rendering the service the buses have relinquished).

The reason for the trouble is obvious and understandable: The terrific amount of building going on along the upper half of Sweet Drive has left street torn up, cars parked so the buses can't get through, equipment standing in the top-of-the-hill turnaround. The impasse has become impossible.

Mothers unite! Like the swallows to Capistrano, the buses must return to Sweet Drive.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

I was left with my mouth open at the end of a recent column, the paper having come to the end of the space allotted me before I had come to the end of my spiel. This is the penalty for talking too much.

However, I'm determined to get in one thing this week that didn't make the grade that time, not that it's a world-shaking item.

It's just that I told Virginia I was going to say it, and I don't wan't her to think I was fibbing to her.

"Virginia Tengstedt from down on Glenside Drive rode up here the other day, parked her horse, and came in for a sun bath. And she has the sunbrun to prove it."

There. I said it, and I'm glad.

Ex-F.B.I. Agent Talks to Rotary

Speaker at Lafayette Rotary Club's noon luncheon yesterday was V. Craig Bull, former F. B. I. agent.

Bull, now an Oakland attorney and resident of Walnut Creek, was an investigator for the F. B. I. in communist activities in the Alameda-Contra Costa areas until a year ago.

Mel Nielsen, program chairman, introduced Bull who talked on "Communist Infiltration and how the F. B. I. Is Combating It."

PRESIDENT KEN JENSEN announced that plans are now under way to launch the 1945 Lafayette school boys' softball league. The league was originated three years ago by the local service club under the Summer Recreation Program.

Eight teams are expected to participate from Lafayette, Vallecito and Montecito Schools.

"THE OLD MEN'S Softball League," comprised of Rotary members, will be under the guiding hand of Carl Westlund again this season. Opponents under consideration for the rugged four-game schedule include Orinda and Walnut Creek Rotary Clubs and Lafayette Lions Club.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Swayne Jr., 3981 Canyon Road, recently spent a few days at Del Monte Lodge, Pebble Beach.

Many Newcomers

The list of Lafayette newcomers keeps right on growing. Latest compilation by the Lafayette Chamber of Commerce includes the following new residents:

H. S. Schott, 1258 Panorama; Don W. Freeman, 1044 Carol Lane; Harry and Alma Doyle, 3213 Andreasen Lane; Al Meggs Jr., 1348 Reliez Valley Road; S. J. Kaufman, 1106 Magnolia.

Harold Hecker, 1021 Dyer Drive; Warren C. Marty, 915 Anita Court; Frank F. Lind, 3629 Happy Valley Lane; W. T. Bishpan, 1137 Perales Street; Tal Runnels, 3686 Mosswood Drive; Thomas L. Mackey, 1057 Buchan Drive; George Monheit, 1107 Magnolia Lane.

Coupler's Club To Hear of Trip

The Coupler's Club is going South of the border Wednesday at 7 p. m. Entertainment will set the mood for a Mexican dinner followed by two very fine speakers.

Mrs. LuRene Mattson will relate some of her fascinating experiences on her trip to Mexico. Then Dr. Clifford Feller will show some of his excellent three dimensional color slides.

Membership in the Couplers' Club is open to any man and wife whose combined ages do not exceed eighty years. It is sponsored by the Lafayette Community Methodist Church.

EASTER PARADE

Easter Sunday was indeed a day of inspiration and of celebration for all of us. Church attendance, stunning dress ensembles, and Easter feasts gave deserved importance to this glorious time of the year.

From Lafayette Orchards Dr. and Mrs. Maurice Boevers attended the Methodist Community Church of Lafayette. Mrs. Boevers wore a spring grey suit which was accented with a lovely white hat. Her daughter, Peggy, chose a pert white dress adorned with pink rosebuds. The Boevers had a quiet family dinner at home.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin W. Rodman listened to their daughter, Valerie, sing in the children's choir at the Lutheran Church of Lafayette, with their sons, James and Michael. Mrs. Rodman looked stunning in a white pique dress trimmed with brown flowers. Her beige hat and stole completed the outfit.

After church the Rodmans attended an Easter egg hunt for the children and a champagne breakfast for the adults at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Dannels of Lafayette. In the evening the family enjoyed a chicken barbecue at home in their backyard.

. . . AND DINNER OUT

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Angella of Friendship Farms went to St. Perpetua Church in Lafayette with their three sons, Kenneth, Randall and Thomas. Mrs. Angella wore a beautiful white Easter hat trimmed with lilacs. The family had dinner at the home of Mr. Angella's mother in Berkeley.

Gloria and Alfred Fraumeni attended the Lutheran Church with their daughter, Lynnae. Mrs. Fraumeni chose a blue taffeta suit and a pastel feathered hat for this occasion.

TRIP NORTH

That afternoon the Fraumenis drove to Sonoma for a large family gathering, for which Alfred's mother, Mrs. Angella Fraumeni, was hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Osgood and their children, Lonnie, Tommy and Connie, attended the Walnut Creek Presbyterian Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Carbone, with their daughters Janie and Kristine, and Mr. and Mrs. Dean Campbell, all of Orchard Valley Lane, went to services at St. Perpetua in Lafayette.

After church both couples attended a dinner party and Easter egg hunt at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin M. Tilden of Upper Happy Valley Road.

MORE CHIC STYLES

Lamoyne and Quinn Spotts, accompanied by their children, Nancy and Gregory, also attended St. Perpetua Catholic Church.

In the afternoon the Spotts attended a famliy dinner at the home of Lamoyne's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Ivy, in Danville.

Phyllis and Jack Hope listened to Easter services at the Walnut Creek Presbyterian Church. Phyllis wore a striking blue shantung dress.

Mr. and Mrs. Byron Maynes, also of Orchard Valley Lane, accompanied their three children, Diane, Johnny and Paul to the Presbyterian Church. Mrs. Maynes and Diane wore white full-skirted summer dresses.

Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon Maderios of Almanor Lane, with the daughters, Denise and Linda, were present for services at St. Perpetua. Denise wore a pink and white dotted swiss dress and Linda chose a beige suit. Mrs. Maderious wore her new coral feathered hat for the occasion.

Mrs. Walter Reed of Orchard Valley wore two purple orchids when she accompanied her son and daughter-in-law to the Lutheran Church.

Rosemary and Mervin Casaurang gave and Easter Day picnic for their two children, Sherrie and Janie, in the yard of their home on Almanor Lane. An Easter egg hunt preceded the meal.

Lorraine and Bud Weare were hosts to Mrs. Weare's mother, Mrs. Lottie Wilson, for Sunday ham dinner.

HOUSE GUESTS

Francis and Dick Koester of Friendship Farms recently had Mr. and Mrs. William Cannon of Auburn as their house guests. The Koesters took the Cannons and their two children, Jeanie and Jimmie, on a tour of San Francisco and the Bay Area during their visit.

Jo Veta Osgood and her three children returned to their Friendship Farms home last Saturday after a week's visit in the Los Angeles area.

While down south Jo Veta visited her husband's father, William Powell of Lancaster. She also contacted various friends that she had grown up with, and several parties were given in her honor.

BACK HOME

Two-year-old Danny Ginsey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Denver Ginsey of Clinton Court, has returned from the Children's Hospital of the East Bay, where he was treated for an abcessed ear and his tonsils and adenoids were removed. The little tot is now recovering from the operation at home.

Mr. and Mrs. John McKirahan of Lafayette Orchards gave an Easter dinner for Mr. and Mrs. H. E. McNichols of Walnut Creek. The couples danced to records at the conclusion of the meal.

500 Kids Find 4010 Eggs in 10-Minute Hunt

Five hundred enthusiastic youngsters plunged into the tall grass back of Town Hall promptly at 10:30 last Saturday morning for the Lafayette Chamber of Commerce-sponsored Fifth Annual Easter Egg Hunt. Ten minutes later the field was practically deserted.

With whoops of delight, children pounced on 1000 waxed bags containing 4000 candy eggs of various colors (four eggs to a bag).

And with special yodels of joy 10 of the youthful participants came forth with prize-winning chocolate-covered, tinfoil-wrapped eggs. In each wrapping was a number for a certain prize.

MEL NIELSEN, chairman of the event, announced the prize-winners and their prizes as follows:

First — Betty Brooks, 3483 Hamlin Road, radio.

Second — George Mattson, 3574 Terrace Way, order for a pair of Ked shoes.

Third and fourth — Carla Gudnason, 838 Sibert Court, and Kathy Rose, 905 Dewing Avenue, $2.50 merchandise order for each (Carla's at the Lafayette Dime and Dollar Store and Kathy's at the Ben Franklin Store).

Fifth through 10th — Christine Van Dorn, 1057 Laurel Drive; Mark Winkel, 954 Dewing Avenue; Jack Silva, 1030 Hampton Road; Donald Nunley, 3618 Chestnut Street; Richard Rossi, 1473 Reliez Valley Road, and Howard Deferrari, 8486 Hamlin Road — two tickets to the Park Theater for each.

BOY SCOUTS of Troop 218, under Scoutmaster Dick Van Dorn, and of Troop 204 directed traffic and assisted in dividing the egg-hunters into two age groups, those up through 8 and those 9 and over.

On Nielsen's committee of arrangements, the work of which included hiding of the 4010 eggs, were Chamber President Fred Wagner, Chamber Secretary Fred Peglow, Jack Pedder, Fire Chief Shirley Peakes and Ray Englebricksen.

Pan American Night Observed

At the Wednesday American Legion Auxiliary 517 meeting, members were entertained by a talk given by Mrs. Andrew Glimme on her travels and experiences in Mexico.

This was the regular Pan American Night.

Tomorrow night the Past Commanders Night is being observed with a steak dinner.

The steak dinners will be under the supervision of Jack Hageman and a well planned program promises to provide a gay evening.

Around Orinda

By CATHY BEDECARRE

STILL FINDING LEFT-OVER Easter eggs around your place?

Our two young scavengers beat the bushes till nary a one escaped their notice, but after they had staggered off to bed Easter evening Mama got busy and snatched back a few so their tummies wouldn't be as full as those baskets.

But we did have a wondreful Easter day, with early morning church and a family gathering after the egg hunt. Papa slaved over a hot barbecue pit and the weather couldn't have been better.

A LITTLE WATER

Speaking of these balmy days, the Moraga Meadows Association chose a perfect week to survey that neighborhood concerning a community pool. Just when everybody's fancy was turning to thoughts of cool, clear water and a refreshing swim, around came the volunteer suvey-ors with a questionnaire.

Frank Leibold of Overhill Road is in charge of this project, which is designed to find out how many families are really interested enough in a pool to pledge financial aid. Of course this survey obligates no one, it is purely preliminary and will prove if there is enough support to go ahead further with planning.

LOOKS GOOD

As of the beginning of this week all the results were not in but the response so far has been greatly in favor of a pool. The heartening thing about it is the willingness of almost everyone to offer their own services, either as professionals who could advise in some capacity, or as completely amateur handymen willing to work in any way to help along the project.

So now at least there is some concrete idea where the people in Moraga Meadows stand on a pool and perhaps something will come of it after all.

BUSY SPRING DAYS

Have you seen that obnoxious television commercial for a "busy day dessert"? It is too true to be anything but horrible in my opinion. However I never cease to be amazed by the fact that the busiest people can always manage one more thing, ever notice?

Stella Royle has some active days ahead on her current calendar. Tomorrow Mr. and Mrs. Boyle and the Francis Wyatts are giving a cocktail party at the Boyles' home in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Leland (the former Carol Wilbur).

Sunday young Peter Boyle will be among 50 children receiving their first Holy Communion at Santa Maria Church so of course that calls for a family party.

Next Thursday Stella is in charge of reservations for the Tanager unit's luncheon and fashion show to be held at Castlewood Country Club. In case you'd like to reserve a table this weekend is the deadline.

Pertinent facts about the party . . . luncheon will be served at 12:30, the fashion show is being presented by Mrs. Benioff who will show her new line of casual clothes, tickets are $3 each and may be reserved by calling either Lucille Morris at Orinda 8360 or Ann Nightingale at Orinda 3203.

HOME AGAIN

Mr. and Mrs. John Everett returned to their home on Meadow Lane last Monday after a sojourn in Modesto. Marian and their two children spent a week there visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Melrose, and Jack arrived for the weekend and a family reunion on Easter.

Also at the family party was Marian's sister Barbara Johansson, whose husband, Al, has been appointed Oakland district manager for Marchant Calculator Company. So they will be moving from their present home in Stockton to Orinda in the near future. Good news for they are a charming couple.

MR. AND MRS. E. M. HAZLETT of 60 Southwood Drive returned this week from a month's stay in the Hawaiian Islands. They have sent back wonderful news of their trip to their daughter, Mrs. Zach Montgomery, and particularly mentioned their enjoyable visit to Hana Maui.

Before the Hazletts left they had a chance to see their Orinda friends, Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Tosteson of Davis Road, who just arrived in the Islands this week.

Please write us news about your family, friends, clubs and interesting events. If you see something important, call at once.

'Sabrina Fair' Playing in SF

"Sabrina Fair," Samuel Taylor's cheerful comedy which is playing to capacity business at the National Theatre, New York, had its West Coast counterpart open a four weeks engagement at the Geary Theater Monday night.

Starring in this delightful comedy are Wendell Corey, Diana Lynn and Estelle Winwood, and it is being presented by Russell Lewis, Howard Young and American Productions, by arrangement with The Playwrights Company.

Although Mr. Corey was a well known and successful stage thespian before appearing before the cameras, "Sabrina Fair" will mark his first stage appearance in San Francisco. Miss Lynn enchanted audiences a year ago as Patty O'Neill in "The Moon is Blue" in which she also appeared in London and Miss Winwood has been seen here many times, most recently in the Lewis & Young production of T. S. Eliot's "The Cocktail Party."

Featured in the cast are Margaret Bannerman, here last season in "Gigi," Philip Tonge, Lewis Martin, Maurice Marsac and Marshall Thompson, well known screen performer.

Principal Tells Nursery Mothers About Problems

If the mother weeps when she sends her child off on his first day of school, so will the child, and the kindergarten teacher will have a problem on her hands, Philip Lambert, director of instruction for the Orinda school district, told members of the Orinda Nursery School meeting held recently at the Orinda Community Church.

"Parents must be confident in their child's ability to adjust to new situations generally," Lambert said. "The school's biggest problem often is the parents," according to the speaker, who also is principal of Del Rey School.

IF THE PARENT HAS been selecting independent experiences for the child, he will adjust easily to kindergarten, Lambert said.

In addition to the psychology of the first day of school, the speaker explained the reading readiness program as developed in kindergarten, and described the ideal relationship between the teacher and the parent.

Hostesses were the Mesdames Harry Larsen, Elwood Wright, Otis Miller, Alder McElrath Jr., Lionel G. Sullivan, Harry Sommers and William J. Talbot Jr.

MRS. C. W. BROCK JR., announced that tickets for the nursery school's annual benefit dinner dance are now available through ticket chairman Mrs. David Lewis at Orinda 2758. Tickets must be secured in advance of the affair scheduled May 8 at Diablo Country Club.

Some 40 members of the nursery school's "senior class" visited the Orinda fire house recently as the first of their spring field trips.

Home Departments to Discuss Fabrics

The Orinda Home Department will meet at 10 a.m. Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Alfred M. Hansen, 4 Hacienda Circle.

Mrs. Mary Williams, home advisor, will discuss "Fabrics and Finishes" in the morning. After luncheon is served Miss Dorothy Lewis, guest speaker, will give a talk on interior decorating.

Please make reservations by calling Orinda 2795 or Orinda 2043.

Clipper Club to Hear Landscape Architect

The Clipper Club will meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Campbell, 74 Sleepy Hollow Lane, tonight at 8 p. m.

Speaker will be C. Masoh Whitney, landscape architect, who will talk on "Landscaping at Home." The talk will be illustrated with slides.

Both Whitney and William Penn Mott Jr. will be available for garden questions after the program. Refreshments will be served.

Lutheran

"DOUBTS ABOUT THE Risen Christ" are common in the minds of many people who do not know or understand the full meaning of Christ's presences in the sacrament of baptism. This sacrament is the foundation of the Christian faith.

The Rev. Edward R. Andersen, pastor of the Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church, will try to answer some of these doubts particularly for the parents of children who will be baptized at the 8 and 11 a.m. srevices Sunday.

At the 9:30 Sunday School period the children will be instructed in the meaning of baptism together with witnessing the baptism of David John Newacheck, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Newacheck of 21 Tappan Lane, Orinda.

THE FIRST TICKETS for the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center benefit Spring Hunter Trials and Olympic Event, May 15 and 16, are sold to Martinez Attorney John Baldwin, congressional candidate. Veteran horsewoman Janet Emerson of Walnut Creek makes the sale as Mrs. Paul Kops of Orinda looks on. To be held in Concord, the event is also sponsored by the Concord-Mt. Diablo Trail Ride Association.

GO TO CHURCH SUNDAY

Church School Teachers to Meet

To formulate material and plan lessons, all church school teachers and workers of St. Stephen's Episcopal Church will meet Monday at 8 p. m. in the undercroft of the new church building on Via Las Cruces in Orinda.

Owing to unexpectedly large enrollment, several classes have been divided, and new instructors added to th staff, to accommodate the 240 students who have signed up for Sunday church school.

Mrs. Robert McCarter has resigned as teacher of the juniors' section, and her class has been divided, with Clyde C. Johnson taking over one portion and Fred Lincoln Jr. the other.

The class of Mrs. Fred Lincoln Sr. has been divided, with Miss Ann Badgley taking the second section of the primary unit.

Jim Hill has been appointed assistant to William Bushnell in the training of the acolytes, while Fred Lincoln Sr. serves as substitute for all classes.

Under the supervision of Mrs. Walter Eric Christie, classes include nursery school, kindergarten, primary, juniors, fifth grade, pre-confirmation and confirmation, girls age 13 to 16 and acolytes.

Other instructors include Mrs. James DuPuis, Mrs. Jack Rands, Mrs. Richard Fayram, Miss Dorothy Floyd, Mrs. Walter E. Christie, Mrs. Charles M. Hill, William Platt and Ralph Hill.

Youth Plan Big Top Dance

More fun than a circus will be the Big Top Dance to be held tomorrow night by the St. Stephen's Fellowship from 8:30 to 12 p. m. in the undercroft of the new Episcopal church on Via Las Cruces in Orinda.

With young people from five East Bay parishes planning to attend, the affair promises to be a memorable one for Orinda teen agers, according to Jim Hall, chairman.

Reservations have come in from youth groups of St. Mark's, All Souls and St. Clement's Churches in Berkeley; St. Baul's Church in Walnut Creek, and St. Paul's Church in Oakland.

"St. Hill's High Hat Five" will furnishe popular music under the direction of Peter St. Hill, pianist and accordianist. The combination consists of Fred Arbogast, trombone; Stan Pitkin, tenor saxophone; John Bohn, guitar, and Jerry Cullen, drums, all young musicians from Orinda and Lafayette.

Refreshments are under the chairmanship of Judy Dunn and Vic Savale. Admission will be 50 cents per couple, or 75 cents for stags.

Murray Groves'

A gathering of friends met at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Murray Groves recently for a pot-luck dinner and an informal program of games and music.

Those enjoying an unusually fine dinner and all the fun and entertainment were Messrs. and Mesdames E. T. Meakin, Ralph Wilson, E. J. Fowler, B. W. Towne of Berkeley and their house guest, Miss Helen Mason of Laguna Beach, Clifford Hamilton of Berkeley and Mesdames Carrie Brown, Idress Abbott, Minerva Beebe, Miss "Goodie" Jensen, and Dr. Murray Groves Jr.

Church to Hold Box Supper

With Lynn Vivrette acting as master of ceremonies, and Dr. A. C. Hollister as auctioneer, St. Stephen's Choir wil sponsor an old-fashioned box supper for all members and friends of St. Stephen's Episcopal Church tonight at 7 in the undercroft of the new church on Via Las Cruces in Orinda.

Decorated boxes containing supper for two will be auctioned off early in the evening, and the purchaser will eat the supper of his choice with the lady who concocted it at a candlelit table.

Pink, purple and white will be the principal colors used in the circus theme which will be carried out in ornamentation and entertainment, according to Mrs. Lynn Vivrette, who is in charge of the box supper floor show, and who smiles secretively whenever pressed for details on just whata will comprise the entertainment.

Joint chairmen for the event are Mrs. A. C. Holister and Stanley Stidham. Mrs. Fred Fowkes and Mrs. Stan Hunn will supervise decorations, and Mrs. Elmo Moorehead and Mrs. David Collamer are in charge of publicity.

Community

Officers and members of Bethel 218, Job's Daughters of Lafayette. under the leadership of Joan Hogue, will attend the 11 a. m. worship service of the Orinda Community Church Sunday and will participate in opening and closing parts of the hour.

"What Do You Want from Life?" is the topic of the sermon to be given especially for young women by the minister, the Rev. Fred R. Morrow. Margaret Popovich will direct the Chapel Choir in the music portions, with Daniel Popovich at the console of the memorial pipe organ.

The church's program for young people will be extended Sunday by formation of a Junior Pilgrim Fellowship for seventh and eighth grades at 5:30 in the Fellowship Hall.

Mrs. William Margerin and Mrs. Fred Twining will be assisted in the opening of this new group by parents, Senior P. F. members, and others with the counsel of Student Assistant Ray L. Welles.

Nursery School Benefit Dance Is at Diablo

The Orinda Nursery School's big social event of the year, the spring informal dinner dance, will be held Saturday, May 8, at Diablo Country Club, Mrs. C. W. Brock Jr., dance chairman, announces.

The dance is the non-profit, cooperative nursery school's annual benefit and tickets may now be obtained from members or from ticket chairman Mrs. David Lewis at Orinda, telephone 2758.

Gordon Heche's orchestra will play for dancing and in response to popular demand, an extra hour of dancing is scheduled this year. Dinner will be served at 9 p.m., with dancing until 2 a.m.

There will be a special table at the dance for distinguished alumni, Mrs. Brock said.

Light Opera Festival Told

Two outstanding New York hits and two brilliant new Civic Light Opera productions will be presented in the 15th annual festival of the San Francisco Civic Light Opera, opening at the Curran Theater May 17. Each show will play four weeks. Mail orders are now being accepted for season tickets at the Curran Theater.

The two New York hits are "The King and I," starring Yul Brynner and Patricia Morison, with the entire Broadway company and production, and "Porgy and Bess," the George Gershwin-DuBose Heyward classic, which has been acclaimed in Berlin, London, Paris and New York, and starring Cab Calloway.

This is the popular musical with the "Summertime" score.

Mary Martin is being starred in one of the new Civic Light Opera productions — a new musical version of "Peter Pan," which is being presented exclusively for the 1954 festival. Entire production is being directed and staged by Jerome Robbins. The other Civic Light Opera production is "Brigadoon," starring William Johnson, of "Carousel" fame.

The 15th annual festival will get under way with "Brigadoon," opening at the Curran May 17. Second event will be "Porgy and Bess," to open at the Curran June 14. Third attraction is Rodgers and Hammerstein's "The King and I," which will play at the Opera House, beginning July 12.

Fourth show is Mary Martin in "Peter Pan," set for the Curran July 19., which will only play San Francisco and Los Angeles.

Gamma Phi Beta Alumnae Plan Spring Hoe-Down

Novel invitations have gone out to Gamma Phi Beta alumnae of Contra Costa County for a "Spring Hoe-Down," to be held on Saturday night, May 1, at the Sportsmen's Club in Walnut Creek.

This informal affair will start at 7 p. m. with potluck supper, and cotton attire is in order for the sorority's alumnae and their husbands.

A highlight of the evening's festivities will be the Country Store Auction, featuring all kinds of surprise delicacies. Mrs. William A. Patterson of Orinda will preside as auctioneer, and she promises some hilarious transactions. There will also be dancing.

Mrs. Douglas Johnston of Walnut Creek is general chairman for the party, now a Gamma Phi Beta spring tradition. Any newcomers in the area who may not have been notified can call Mrs. Johnston at YE 4-7801 for reservations.

Latvian Trio At Acalanes

The Latvian Trio will appear at Acalanes High School tonight at 8 p.m. with Nilda Strauss-Grimms, soprano, as guest artist.

The program will include Haydn's Trio in G Major, Beethoven's Trio in C Minor and a series of songs by Mme. Strause Grimms.

Dramateurs, Art Group to Combine Painting, Theater

Can the Arts be combined to bring more enjoyment to the people of the Bay Area?

The Dramateurs with their director Carl Rasmussen of Berkeley, an artist by profession, and Mrs. John Ellis, president of the Outdoor Artists Market in Lafayette, say it can be done and are working together with enthusiastic cooperation in the three weeks prior to the Dramateur presentation of Aldus Huxley's "Gioconda's Smile."

On the May 7, 8, 14 and 15 evenings of the spring production at Whittier School in Berkeley, the Artists Market will present a showing of paintings done by top local artists for the Dramateur audiences.

THE ART GALLERY, to be set up on the first floor near the Whittier auditorium, will be open before curtain time and may be enjoyed during intermissions.

Set designs under Stage Manager Jim Stanislawsky and costumes under Margaret Wiegand will carry out a theme of deep modern colors against a black and white background. A few scenes to be done in black and white only.

THE STORY OF "Gioconda's Smile" provides an excellent vehicle for the Art and Drama combination. The male lead, played by Bruce Winkworth of Orinda, is an art collector who is betrayed almost into death. Dorothy Hanford of Lafayette who wears the Gioconda Smile will play the feminine lead.

Director Rasmussen, Assistant Director Peg Stanislawsky and the cast including Alice Swenning, Terry Schralla, Ed Woltz, Don Shaffer, Stan Wiggins and Jewell Sheeline, challanged by the intense emotional range in the roles, are working nightly in rehearsal.

About our happy Country Folks

By EDITH BOLMAN

WOULD YOU LIKE A LITTLE specialized information on how NOT to go skiing? The Kirk Miles' have all the answers.

Last trip they started out in animated fashion but soon cooled off on the conversation because Mrs. Miles suffers sinus headaches and sundry ails due to the altitudinous route via horseless carriage.

However, the finally arrived and the air was so airy and the snow so snowy they decided it was worth it after all and set about enjoying a ski weekend. Weak-end indeed — first thing Miles Jr. wrenched his knee, then Miles Sr. broke his arm so home they came — for a new cast for characters.

We have heard of a lot of people moving to Orinda but not so many moving away. The W. E. Joslins are moving to Lodi and have sold their home on Miner Road to the Frank Wrights. The Wrights, meantime, are suffering the same reactions as the well-known donkey caught between two bales of hay — not knowing which direction to go — because they still have their house on La Plaza and can't decide whether to move or not to move until such time as it is sold.

This story is the cat's meow!

The doctor's dilemma — and/or — when do personal problems come first! Dr. and Mrs. Samuel Warren Smith have been getting ready to attend a medical convention in Victoria which involves, of course, not only packing but parking.

The children were a cinch, but trying to park Pepper, a soon-to-be-mother cat, took a bit more doing. Final arrangements were made with Mrs. Jessie McCracken, who seems to be the answer in situations like that.

All well and good — Pepper and Dr. Smith got into the car for the purpose of making a few last minute calls and, incidentally, to deliver Pepper to Walnut Creek. Deliver, indeed — Pepper prepared to produce — and Dr. Smith's calls were considerably delayed while one baby kitten came into being in the back seat of the car. Now we are getting to be quite "big city" and, as far as that goes, that sort of thing could happen in any part of town, but don't you think there is a quaint and country flavor to a story about a doctor making his calls while the back seat of his car is being used as a maternity room by the family tabby?

Fun for the Woodburn Lambs, Ambrose Macdonalds and Paul Demeters at the Sports Car event at Pebble Beach. One picturesque note was Lucius Beebe, who arrived in his private Pullman car which is a high fallutin' symphony of Victorian furniture and sophisticated decoration.

Mr. Beebe was one of the judges in the "old car" event and he — complete in grey derby and fancy vest sat in each ancient vehicle while judging — giving quite an effect. On hand were a Stanley Steamer, Rolls-Royce, Pope Hartford, and a Mercedes and a Benz from the premerger period.

Won't you come for a walk in the garden?

Want some rabbit ears or succulents? We are not suggesting that you lift some off a prized collection but if you want to know how to raise them according to Hoyle, Mrs. Thornton Grimes, who is an expert on succulents, is growing some dandies for the Orinda Garden Club exhibit at the Spring Garden Show. The rabbit ears are the pets of Mr. Arthur Pederson, who is doing his stint to help the ladies of the Garden Club, too.

As a matter of fact, husbands of the Garden Club are an enthusiastic lot as evidenced by the exhibits they create for the annual Christmas party.

FISH STORY: Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Manuel spent 10 days in La Paz, Mexico, recently. The Marlin were flapping here and there to the point of monotony so the guide suggested that Mr. Manuel, for an added thrill, might chase one in a rowboat. And chase he did, although for a while it was difficult to figure out who was chasing who. However, Mr. Marlin, a good Marquis of Queensbury fishey, divvied up the pursuit half and half. First it was Mr. Manuel's turn — he hooked Mr. Marlin who promptly turned tail and skittled for the remoter reaches of the ocean. He was getting too far in the lead so Mr. Manuel turned the boat around, started the little outboard motor and chased Mr. Marlin.

The last mentioned Mr. M., in due course, became slightly corked and decided to snatch a little snooze, thereby giving Mr. Manuel a chance to pull up alongside for the planned "body snatch" operation.

Can't say I blame the fish, exactly

But they discovered that 1) Mr. Marlin weighed about 200 pounds, 2) they had lost their gaff and gloves and couldn't get a good enough hold to haul him into the boat, 3) they already had one marlin (they didn't explain how they had gotten absent-minded on that matter) and there was no room for another,4) Mr. Marlin suddenly snapped out of it and made a lurch into the deep and nearly toppled boat and contents to the sharks so Mr. Manuel gave Mr. Marlin his freedom and tootled back to La Paz to tell the tale.

New arrivals in Orinda: the Peter Picards and Bud Dickeys.

HOME FROM DETROIT: Mr. and Mrs. Clinton DeWitt with sons Grigg and Clint, where they visited the senior DeWitts. Robert DeWitt returned too for a week in Orinda.

Skiing: the Willard Millers with Sandy, Steve, Nancy, Roy and Mary McFarland at Alto in Dutch Flats.

Returned from skiing in Squaw Valley during Easter vacation, Mrs. James Sharp and daughter Cherie.

Doesn't this make one psychotic?

"Good night, two Mamas" said the little boy as he gazed at his mother and the tall dark woman standing beside her — because they are identical twins. Mrs. James Herring (Jean) and Mrs. Ray Peebles (Joan) daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Norton are both in this country after living for several years in Bonn, Germany, where Mr. Herring was in the State Department and John Peebles in the service.

The family has been wondering when two-year-old Johnny Herring would notice that his mother had a duplicate, and sure enough he did the other night when they were putting him to bed. The Herrings will be leaving for Baghdad and the Peebles will be assigned to a post in the United States after his return from Korea.

A recent family reunion for 16 included the Lester Hurds (Barbara Norton) the Harold Farquars (Betty Norton) and sons Morley and Dean, the Byron Nelsons (Claire Norton) and Byron Jr. and Mark, and Michael Peebles.

THE MANY FRIENDS of Morley Farquar will be interested to know that he is now living in Miranda, Humboldt County, and will be a June graduate of the South Fork High School. He has been recognized for scholastic excellence and is the recipient of the Bank of America award for scholarship attainment in science and mathematics.

He plans to enroll in Humboldt State College next fall to prepare himself to enter the teaching profession.

That is all.

Garden Tractor Demonstration Sunday

SECOND SECTION

ORINDA SUN

Friday, April 23, 1954

TWO OF THE MANY GARDEN TRACTORS that will be exhibited in action at the Garden Tractor Demonstration Sunday are shown in this picture. At left, Douglas Kilbourn of Kilbourn Motor Sales operates a powerful Mustang, while Bill Magrath of Diamond K Supply puts the new electric, multi-purpose Tiny Rototiller through some of its paces. Dealers from throughout this area will demonstrate home garden tractors and weeding machines at the free "show" at Arroyo Way and Ygnacio Valley Road, across from Walnut Creek City Park, from 1 to 4 p.m. The demonstration is jointly sponsored by The SUN, the Contra Costa Shopping News and the University of California Agricultural Extension Service, Contra Costa County Office. —SUN photo by Ned Davis

Free Show to be Held from 1 to 4

Home gardeners of Central Contra Costa County are assured a "field day" at the Garden Tractor Demonstration Sunday, 1 to 4 p.m., at Arroyo Way and Ygnacio Valley Road, Walnut Creek, almost directly across from Walnut Creek City Park.

Under the joint sponsorship of The SUN, the Contra Costa Shopping News and the University of California Agricultural Extension Service, Contra Costa County Office, the free "show" will feature all kinds of small garden tractors and weeding machines.

The equipment will be demonstrated by representatives of area firms dealing in garden apparatus. Questions about garden tractors will be fully answered.

THE AGRICULTURAL Extension Service will be represented by Arthur Goff, farm adviser, assisted by Jim Hampton, extension assistant. They will be under the direction of R. E. Goble, county director of the Agricultural Extension Service.

The SUN and Contra Costa Shopping News will be represented by Herman Silverman, publisher.

Diamond K Supply of Lafayette, Concord Farm Implement Company, Kilbourn Motor Sales of Lafayette and Garden Equipment Company of Concord will demonstrate the many types of garden tractors usable in this area.

Goff, recognized expert on home garden and soil problems, has been with the Agricultural Extension Service seven years. He is a Walnut Creek resident. Formerly he was with the U.S. Department of Agriculture, and was in charge of a soil survey for this area.

Hampton, as extension assistant, is in charge of tractor plot equipment for the demonstration.

BECAUSE OF THE many kinds of machines that will be in operation at the demonstration, it will be advisable to leave children at home.

The two-acre site for the demonstration made available by its owner, Paul Nave, has been prepared for the occasion by the Agricultural Extension Service. Everything is ready for a comprehensive display.

Home Gardening's Fun when Informal But Should Be Based on Good Planning

LANDSCAPING AND GARDENING are hardly a cut and dried affair! Rather, these tasks permit wide divergence in taste and ideas, and they are most fun for the homemaker when approached as informally as possible.

However, all gardeners should endeavor to plant with some sort of over-all plan in mind.

The California Association of Nurserymen says that any of its members will be glad to make recommendations that will help gardeners in arranging their grounds and yards in a practical and attractive manner.

BUT "PLANNED planting," says the association, should consist of knowing certain informal rules, rather than relying on hard and fast diagrams and axioms.

Planning is particularly essential in regard to trees. The two important factors in tree planting are the securing of maximum beauty—and of shade where it is needed.

It is always good to place a tree near the driveway, where the family bus can be parked out of the sun. And there may be picture windows or kitchen exposures that need shading.

FOR THE BEAUTY angle, if you have room, try planting in triangular patterns. Use smaller growing trees in completing such triangles. When planting large backyard trees, consider the background effect that will be created, since the tops will likely be visible from the front of the house.

Verify with your nurseryman the size that those trees you wish to plant will attain, and get him to appraise their cleanliness and resistance to disease.

Garden Club to Hear of Travels

The Mt. Diablo Men's Garden Club will meet at the El Monte Drive In Restaurant on Clayton Down the Colorado River in a Row Road Tuesday to hear a talk "A Trip Boat."

Joseph L. Dudziak, R.R., manager of Parr-Richmond Terminal Company, has made the trip successfully and has earned the title R.R., meaning River Rat, a title held by only about 100 other successful voyagers.

Experts on gardening will also be present to give timely tips.

The meetings will be at 7:30 p.m. during Daylight Saving Time, due to popular demand on the part of the members.

Shopping at home has a number of advantages. You save time, effort — and money, too.

Garden Checklist Advises Spraying

By The California Association of Nurserymen

Home gardening tips for this week include:

1. To prevent thrip injury to gladiolus, spray or dust at two-week intervals.
2. Water the garden deeply. After watering, dig down and see if you have done a good job.
3. Don't forget shade trees. They also want water during the summer. The water should penetrate deep; that is where the roots are.
4. English primrose plants may be divided as soon as they finish their spring bloom.

Zinnia Planting Time Here Again

Summer is just around the corner and zinnia planting time is with us again. For quick and vivid color few annuals match bright, flashy zinnias with their warm, lusty colors. Plants set out today will show color in a matter of four to five weeks and continue on for most of the summer.

The California Bedding Plant Advisory Board recommends many companion plants which will complement a zinnia planting and share the same cultural conditions. Try some of the dwarf marigolds, dwarf dahlias, tall blue ageratum or dwarf dusty miller for an intermediate edging. For a low border try one of the following — dwarf ageratum, dwarf lobelia, verbena, pygmy marigold, dwarf gem petunia or dwarf phlox.

Fifteen Local Belles Enter Queen of Industry Contst of 40 et 8 Society

Fifteen local contestants from all types of business have been chosen and are competing in the Queen of Industry contest sponsored by Contra Costa County Voiture 473, 40 et 8 Society.

The contest will run through May 15 when it will be climaxed by the crowning of the queen at the Coronation Ball being held at the National Guard Armory in Concord.

Her Majesty, Queen of Industry, will have her choice of a vacation trip to Honolulu, by air or boat, or if she prefers, $300 cash. Second award will be $100 cash, third award $50 cash, fourth and fifth awards will be $25 cash, each.

All winners will be awarded beautiful trophies and the Queen's sponsoring place of business will receive a permanent plaque.

The standing of all the contestants will be kept 'top secret' says the director, John McCuistion. Winners will not be revealed until the Coronation Ball.

This contest highlighting the working woman is being conducted for the purpose of raising much needed funds for the Voiture's Child Welfare and Rehabilitation programs.

Candidates from the local area are:

Orinda — Polly Boggess. Black's Market.

Christian Science

That unwavering obedience to the eternal demands of Christ is the only way to individual salvation and progress will be brought out at services Sunday at Churches of Christ, Scientist, at 42 Orinda Highway, Orinda, and 1347 Locust Street, Walnut Creek.

The Lesson-Sermon, entitled "Probation after Death," includes the following passage from the Bible: "Wherefore, my beloved, as ye have always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling" (Philippians 2:12).

From "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy the following passage will be read: "Vibrating like a pendulum between sin and the hope of forgiveness, — selfishness and sensuality causing constant retrogression, — our moral progress will be slow. Walking to Christ's demand, mortals experience suffering. This causes them, even as drowning men, to make vigorous efforts to save themselves; and through Christ's precious love these efforts are crowned with success" (22:3).

The Golden Text is from Psalms: "Examine me, I Lord, and prove me; try my reins and my heart" (26:2).

Sea Scouts take Second at Meet

The Acalanes Sea Scout Ship "Sea Lion" won two first places in five events, placing second in the competition at Crockett early this month.

The event was the Eastern Division Sea Scout Spring Competition at the Community Auditorium.

Skipper C. R. Russell was in charge of the local ship, which gathered in 82½ points in the following events:

Obstacle relay, salvo, drill, rope jump and knots.

Looking Forward Themes Home Day

Looking Forward has been selected as the theme for the annual Home Advisor Day to be held May 5 at 1 p.m. at the Agricultural Extension Service Auditorium, Cowell. Home Advisor Day is observed as part of National Home Demonstration Week, May 3 to May 8.

Women in 23 communities in Contra Costa County meet each month to learn better methods in homemaking in the program. During May project leaders will give instructions in making simple household repairs, including plumbing and electric cord and outlet repairs.

Mrs. John E. Kennett, Reliez Valley I group, is chairman of activities for Home Advisor Day. She is being assisted by Mrs. Harry Hobbs, Knightsen; Mrs. D. V. Killingsworth, Orinda; Mrs. W. E. Sullivan, Cowell, and Mrs. Fred Donahue of Danville.

THE HOWARD ROTOVATOR "BANTAM"

COME ONE, COME ALL, see why more professional growers buy ROTOVATOR . . . than all other makes of rotary tillage tools combined!
Rotary tillage has REPLACED ordinary cultivation in most nurseries and the Howard Rotavators are outselling all others by a wide margin. Wherever perfect soil and vigorous growth are vital, nurserymen and custom workers are turning to Rotovation. UNLIKE OTHER ROTARY TILLERS, its Controlled Rotor-Action will not powder the soil at high speeds and destroy soil structure. And Howard's quality, low upkeep and long life are unsurpassed! WE CAN PROVE IT at the free demonstration Sunday. Let us show you.

PATTER ON THE PARTY LINE

By PATRICIA JELTON

ANYBODY WORRIED ABOUT the Orinda Crossroads getting too urban?

Well, stop. Just waited out a traffic jam while a cow leisurely made its way across the highway. Making private survey as to which side greener, no doubt.

Note, watch for land use posting in area.

We were on our way home from Orinda Branch meeting at the Herman Eichmeyers' lovely home. Elda brown as a berry from Easter week vacation with Bob and Verdita Neuhaus at Death Valley. She and Ike played 18 holes every day despite 103 in the shade, and so excited about showing off new decorative screen just installed that a.m.

It was sent from Japan and consisted of hundreds of brilliantly colored butterflies, real ones, embedded in transparent plastic and surrounded with various Oriental fauna.

Such a divine idea for, say, screening off that old arm chair that father is guarding with his life from the rummage round-up.

Hotter than the hinges on the back door

When they turn on the furnace in Death Valley, they really do it in a hurry, because seems no time at all that the William Freemans came back reporting definite nip in the air, while they toured the same course daily.

BOTH GALS are now burning up the Orinda course along with smart sharpies Eleanor Underwood and Sue Doughery.

Chairman Maddy Borden anxious to get the agenda cleared as she is taking off with Fred for vacation in Chicago and Tulsa.

Ramona MacDonald name chairman for June event and full of exciting details about recent interesting stay in Guatemala City with the Stanford Farnsworths, daughter and son-in-law of Orinda's Lloyd Rowleys.

A real relaxing schedule for guests

For 10 days they were entertained in true Latin fashion, which means at least four parties a day, lunch at three and dinner at ten, to meet all of the important families and ambassadors. Also taken on tours of the fabulous fincas. (We didn't know either. It's a farm, not what you think.)

On the way home they stopped at Acapulco where husband James snagged huge sailfish as proper climax to wonderful sojourn.

WELL, ANYWAY, like we said, Ramona is in charge of the super party to be given on the evening of June 2 at El Nido, which Evie (Mrs. Woodburn) Lambs, just back from Pebble Beach, will get her mind off sports cars and on to decorative schemes, to transport the bistro into classic bower, with gold and silver decor as fitting background for the local luscious ladies who will portray the very latest in couture from Saks Fifth Avenue, same to be described (?) by the inimitable Paul Speagle and Jimmy Muir.

Interesting sidelight which we don't think we are supposed to divulge so don't say we told you. Jimmy Muir, busy man that he is, is donating his services and rounding up a crew of excellent entertaining pals, to perform that evening, on account of his child's life was saved at Children's Hospital.

NOW JUST IN CASE the gentlemen guests get restive and have any qualms as to ulterior reason for exhibition of these fabulous fashions, Saks is sending over some of their professional models who will do their professional best to divert the male mind from such mundane matters by displaying the very last gasp or gulp in bathing attire.

After a menu geared to masculine tastes, the rest of the evening will be spent in dancing and general merriment.

The reservations are going fast, so hurry, hurry, call any member or Mary Ann Kahl, Orinda 7321, or Vonn Scheu, Lafayette 2423.

Various doin's around the country

Claire Dailey rushing in breathless from having her picture taken in her little Corvette for the Concourse D'Elegance of sports cars, general hospital event to take place at Diablo Country Club on May 16.

All Den mothers taking blocks of tickets for the Children's Hospital night at the Ball Park which takes place on May 21 when the Oaks will attempt to fracture the Padres. Get your folks to take you, kids.

Kathleen (Mrs. John) McFarland being complimented on recent successful dinner party where the guests almost fractured themselves playing, of all things, table tether ball!

June (Mrs. Bill) McNevin never lost her Carribean tan, as they spent Easter week with son Michael at Thunderbird Country Club in Palm Springs.

Mrs. Charles Camp just back from Santa Barbara and looking forward to Sunday when she won't have to cook. Captain Wilkin of the troopship Mann is arriving with his staff including the culinary ones who will prepare a barbecue feast for Admiral and Mrs. Chester Nimitz, Ruth and Scott Newhall and the Dr. Karl Deisslers (who, incidentally leave soon for trip around the world visiting his folks in the Black Forest region of Germany) among others.

Traveling here and there with the crowd

Mrs. Clinton de Witt Jr. back from Detroit with two oldest children, Briggs and Clinton, for visit with Mr. and Mrs. Clinton de Witt Sr. who had never seen their grandsons before.

DO (MRS. LONIE) BEE interrupting parliamentary procedure with exciting tid bits about big political pow wow coming off at Ruth (Mrs. Lindsay) Spight's attractive Orinda home on May 1.

Jane (Mrs. Thomas) Barrows, Orinda prexy, has invited an impressive list of Republican candidates, who will be at guests' disposal from 10 in the morning until 4:30 in the afternoon. Making introduction and serving coffee and goodies will be the Mesdames Dorothy Bentley, Tom St. Hill, Aubrey Sweet, general chairman; Helen Unruh, Betty Irwin, Marvin Kennedy, Donald Kraots, William Wilson, John Barchfield, King Wilkin, and oh, gosh, just everybody. See you there.

Chatting with Mrs. Harmon Howard, just back from Balboa, and guess what they were having down there while we were having our gorgeous Easter weather? Fog, that's what, ha, ha.

JOAN VERY BUSY GAL getting her house and gardens ready for her Walnut Branch's annual Festival of Flowers and Fashions to take place on May 4, at which all of our loveliest, local lassies model the so desirable summer fashions from the local dispensaries.

Busy night tonight with localites having to make decisions between Junior League house tour, champagne party for Symphony Foundation at the Legion of Honor, and Seabury Club's soiree at Diablo.

We will be passing peanuts at the Legion along with Mrs. Howard Inman, Marshall Shapiro, et al, and going on to the debut concert of Dr. A. E. Bennett's talented daughter, Barbara Basayne, pianist, to be given at the Century Club.

If you get this bad idea, don't!

Speaking of the noted psychiatrist, if you are thinking of suicide, don't, says Benny, no future in it. He leaves soon for Atlantic City where he will read a paper on prevention of suicide, recently read in Honolulu and Los Angeles to fellow mind readers.

Edna Jane Burnett Is Married

Edna Jane Burnett of Lafayette became the bride of Norbert Montinho of San Leandro in an afternoon ceremony Sunday at the First Methodist Church of San Leandro.

Edna, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bayard H. Burnett of 707 Los Palos Drive, wore a gown with a tiered net train, a lace bodice and an illusion neckline. She carried white orchids.

MARIAN FERGUSON of San Leandro was maid of honor, while Patt Arneson of Concord and Mrs. Ray Mesa, Norbert's sister, were bridesmaids.

Norbert is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arlindo Montinho. Now in the service at Castle Air Base, he attended San Leandro High School and spent three years at San Francisco City College.

James Golden of San Leandro was best man. The Rev. Jacob McCartney performed the ceremony.

A RECEPTION followed the ceremony. The couple will be at home in Merced following a two-week honeymoon.

Edna attended San Leandro High School. She is a Past Honored Queen of Job's Daughters in that city.

June Rites Planned by Blood, Lucas

Plans for a June wedding are being made by Mary Anne Lucas and Robert Eugene Blood, both former students of Contra Costa Junior College.

Mary Anne is the daughter of the James R. Lucas' of 3 Monte Vista, Orinda, and Robert's parents are the Robert Bloods Sr. of San Carlos Avenue, Concord.

The ceremony will take place June 20 in the chapel of Santa Maria Catholic Church in Orinda. Myrtle Zanco, cousin of the bride-elect, will be maid of honor.

BRIDESMAIDS WILL BE Diane Biederman of Orinda and Carol Salonius of Walnut Creek. Robert Cockran of Oakland will be best man.

Pre-nuptial entertainment for Mary Anne started with a surprise luncheon and shower given last week by her godmother, Mrs. Eugenia Lucas, and sister-in-law, Mrs. Babbette Lucas, and Mrs. Patricia Lucas.

The affair was held at the George Neldham home at 304 La Espiral, Orinda. About 60 relatives and intimate friends gathered for the festive party and miniature bridal figures were presented to each.

PINK AND WHITE spring flowers were used in the decorations. The main centerpiece, a complete miniature bridal party, made by Mrs. Lester Rife, was presented to Mary Anne.

After their wedding the young couple plan to make their home in Berkeley.

Entertain Guests

Dr. and Mrs. James Seaman, 19 St. James Court, Orinda, and Mr. and Mrs. Miles Sutliffe, 7 Snowberry Lane, Orinda, entertained guests at the Sahara Hotel in Las Vegas last weekend.

Festive Spring Theme at Orinda's Maypole Dance

Early reservations are already pouring in for the Maypole Formal Dinner Dance to be held at Orinda Country Club Saturday, May 1—indicating this will be one of the season's gayest events.

As the guests enter the foyer, they will view simulated lawn, tiered to effect a knoll, banked with potted plants of cyclamen and tulips. Set upon the lawn will be an imitation circus horse whose head will be adorned with a tremendous May basket filled with fresh flowers.

THE ORCHESTRA, also to be seen from the entrance, will be in a festive setting with a low 'marble-like' fence surrounding it, trimmed with bunches of magnolias and tulips.

In back of the orchestra will be a white Maypole with long streamers of pastel crepe paper to form a half-moon shape, the ends of the streamers will be caught with clusters of pastel balloons.

In each corner of the main dance floor will be a large white marble column with flowers and blossoms cascading down toward the dancers.

HOSTESSING COCKTAIL parties in their homes before the party will be the following: Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Mitchell, their guests Messrs. and Mesdames Bernard Allard, Suren Toomajian; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bliesner, their guests Dr. and Mrs. Arthur Lundblad, Dr. and Mrs. Don Parle White; Mr. and Mrs. James Stone, their guests Messrs. and Mesdames W. A. Sparling, Arthur T. Sparling and John Sargent.

Others who have made reservations include Dr. and Mrs. George Crowe for a table of 12, Dr. and Mrs. Abraham Bennett, a table of four.

MANY MEMBERS will meet in the library for a no-host cocktail party; they include the following: Messrs. and Mesdames Fred Federighi, Henry Donovan, Ralph Ong, John Athanson, Joseph Lang, John Traynor, Robert Hoyt, William McGuire, Walter Boysen, George Merriam, Joseph Downs and D. Gerald Barr.

Home Groups to Hold May Meet Early, April 30

Contra Costa County Committee for Home Departments will hold its regular May meeting early on April 30 at 10 a. m. at the home of Mrs. Dante Littorno, 501 Castle Rock Road, Concord.

The luncheon hostesses will be Danville Home Department, with Mrs. Fred Donahue as chairman.

Mrs. George W. Fox, county chairman, will preside at the session to which the nominating committee, composed of Mrs. Kenneth Ferrell of Concord, Mrs. L. D. Tycer of Walnut Creek and Mrs. Glen S. Van Horn of Byron will present candidates for the election of officers for the 1954-55 season.

WHY SEWER BONDS?

COST

A bond issue is the most equitable method of financing the work that must be done NOW by the Central Contra Costa Sanitary District.

During the first year after passage of the bonds, the bond retirement rate will increase taxes only a maximum of six cents per $100 assessed valuation.

With a home assessed at $2500, this will amount to an increase of only $1.50 A YEAR, or 12½ cents a MONTH -- less than the cost of a package of cigarettes!

BUT IF THE BOND ISSUE FAILS, even without the proposed assessment districts or sewer rental fees, the tax rate will increase because of rising operating costs made necessary by ever-increasing repairs to sewer lines caused by over-capacity flow.

The bond issue has been thoroughly explored by members of the Citizens Advisory Committee to the Sanitary District, and the majority agree it is the most equitable means of financing.

The committee feels that the Sanitary District is well run and operated efficiently and that every cent of the bond money will be put to the very necessary use of expanding district facilities to eliminate a health problem and keep stride with our growing area.

The Committee explored alternate schemes of financing, and rejected them one by one because they did not provide the speed, fairness and simplicity of a bond issue.

The majority of members of this committee are in favor of the bond issue!

The peak rate of 93.3 cents per $100 of assessed valuation which will occur in 1957-58 under the bond issue compares with a total rate levied by the district in 1948 of 97.6 cents. THIS INCLUDES ALL OPERATING TAXES AND PRESENT BONDED INDEBTEDNESS!

With a veteran's exemption the maximum cost will not exceed 21 cents A MONTH on a $10,000 home . . . less than the price of a pack of cigarettes.

HEALTH

WE CANNOT AFFORD TO TAKE CHANCES WITH OUR HEALTH OR THE HEALTH OF OUR CHILDREN!

Because the present system has reached capacity, during certain peak periods raw sewage spews out of manholes and overflows onto the streets, and in some cases, even backs up into homes.

Raw sewage pours into the drinking water reservoirs of the East Bay Municipal Utility District. Disease knows no geographical boundaries, and if an epidemic were to start, YOU AND YOUR FAMILY would be endangered.

Health authorities have said that the situation must be corrected immediately, one way or another, and a bond issue is the best way to settle the matter, once and for all.

"The water which has been bubbling out of manholes throughout the district this winter is contaminated and contains raw sewage -- sewage which runs out onto roads and streets down which we drive, and on which our children play! Sewage which is even tracked into our living rooms by the children's shoes and by pets!

"The Sanitary District must do the necessary work one way or another because of the health of the district's residents. However, we understand that it would be more economical, inexpensive and efficient to do this work through the passage of bonds.

"Happily, disease-causing microbes and bacteria cannot read, nor are they permitted to vote. If they could vote, they would probably vote against the Tuesday bond issue which will provide excellent sanitary facilities . . ."

Dr. H. L. Blum, County Health Officer.

VALUE

The bond issue is recognized by financial authorities and taxpayers alike as the best, fastest and most equitable method of getting the job done.

The bonds will be paid back over a 31 year period, allowing the cost to be distributed, so that those who move into the district in five, 10 or 20 years will help bear the load.

Under alternate financing plans, which will have to be initiated should the bonds fail, the load will fall on YOU as a present user.

The bond issue will burden no one -- alternate plans would burden everyone, and provide at best only limited relief to our urgent problems.

The following men and organizations, among others, have endorsed the bond issue. We regret that we cannot publish the full list due to space limitations. We also wish to thank the many, many individuals who have given their support to the bond issue and must go unrecognized.

IT IS THE RIGHT OF THE FREE MAN TO VOTE

For A Ride to the Polls Call YEllowstone 4-4459 or Lafayette 4409

No Threats

The Sanitary District is not forcing the bond issue down the throats of the community. There are certain inescapable facts. "We cannot emphasize too strongly the necessity for PROMPT, COMPLETE AND PERMANENT elimination of all overflows of untreated sewage from the District's sewerage system," said John B. Harrison, Executive Officer of the State Regional Water Pollution Control Board, last month.

He added, "SHOULD THE . . . BOND ISSUE . . . FAIL TO PASS APRIL 27, IT WILL STILL BE NECESSARY FOR THE DISTRICT TO FINANCE ADEQUATE CORRECTIVE MEASURES INTHE NEAR FUTURE."

Competent authorities have investigated the various means of financing necessary work thoroughly, and have agreed that the bond issue is the BEST, EASIEST, AND MOST COMPLETE METHOD of getting the job done right, once and for all!

Prep Teams Eye County Championships

Alhambra Relays Tomorrow Offer Rugged Rivalry

The spring prep sports schedule is a mightly busy one as teams are eyeing the various county championships, with most races wide open affairs at this point, and in few cases is any one team a top-heavy favorite.

Las Lomas has a busy week ahead as it takes part in the Alhambra Relays tomorrow, goes to Brentwood Monday for a track meet and returns for further competition with the John Swett Indians at Crockett next Friday.

The Knights lack depth but have some outstanding performers, paced by Rick Ostrom, who is fast becoming one of the county's best all-around performers.

IN BASEBALL the Knights draw a bye next Tuesday but return to action when they host the Diablo Devils on Thursday.

The Pleasant Hill baseball nine will cross bats with the Acalanes Dons at Lafayette Tuesday, and on Thursday they will host the Crockett Indians.

The Dons round out this week's schedule by playing Antioch at the Acalanes diamond.

The Don golfers tackle Piedmont at Orinda Country Club at 2:15 p.m. today and host San Mateo at Orinda next Friday.

NEXT WEDNESDAY the Don swimmers host Tamalpais and figure to cop another win in preparation for their defense of the county title.

The Don trackmen take part in the Alhambra Relaps tomorrow and face some mighty stiff competition from the host of schools entered.

The Dons' best possibilities lie in the shot, discuss and pole vault.

NEXT THURSDAY the Dons return to dual competitio nwhen they meet El Cerrito at El Cerrito.

The Dons defeated El Cerrito in a close meet earlier in the season. That meet was of a relay nature, with four men in each event, and it remains to be seen if the Dons can repeat on a dual meet basis.

The Dons' strength lies in the field events, whereas the El Cerrito team has strength on the track, so it should be anything but a one-sided affair.

Don JV Trounces Ram Nine, 10-1

Stung by an earlier 3-1 defeat at the hands of the Pleasant Hill Rams, the Acalanes Junior Varsity baseball team came back with a vengeance at the Acalanes diamond Monday to rack up a 10-1 win over the Rams.

The Dons, behind the steady pitching of Pete Villa, elongated sophomore right-hander, wasted little time going out in front.

They scored in the opening inning when Don Babcock was on via a fielder's choice and came home when Andy Fadelli rapped out a center field single after Babcock had pilfered second.

The Don Babes added three runs in the second frame, four in the fifth and two in the sixth.

Pleasant Hill's lone run came in the fifth when Moore walked and tallied on Strobel's single.

The Don Babes tallied 11 hits to the Rams' three, and each club committed one error.

Villa went the route for the Dons on the mound, striking out 11 and walking nine.

SPORTS

Don Horsehiders Scuttle Pitt's Pirates, 10-4

The Acalanes horseniders chalked up a 10-4 win at the expense of the Pittsburg Pirates Tuesday afternoon at Pittsburg.

In posting the win, the Dons ran their league victories up to five in a row, as against a single loss in the league opener versus Antioch.

The Dons took a 2-0 lead in the opening frame.

Bob Kinney walked, went to second on a wild pitch and scored on Bob Gray's double to centerfield.

GRAY WENT to third on a pass ball and scrambled home on another pitch that got away from the catcher.

The Dons added another pair of runs in the second inning and one in the third, to make it 5-0.

The Acalanes nine really iced the game in the top of the fourth, when they scored four more runs on three hits and two walks.

PITCHER RED JONES started off the fireworks when he snigled. Then Pee Wee Silveira walked.

Richie Munn whiffed for out No. 1 The bags were plugged when Kinney drew a walk on a 3-2 count.

Gray laid down a perfect bunt, scoring Jones from third, while Gray was out on the throw to first.

Bart Ferro, next at bat, rapped out a double, scoring Silveira and Kinney and coming home with run No. 9 when Benny Edgar singled.

The inning ended when John Champlin grounded short to first.

AT THIS POINT Pittsburg came back swinging, to score two in the bottom of the fourth.

The Pirates added another pair in the sixth, after the Dons had scored John Conley from third when Jerry Coakley executed a squeeze bunt in the fifth, making the final score 10-4.

Jones, on the mound for the Dons, gave up sevent hits while setting down 11 via the strikeout route.

JACKSON, hurling the first five innings for the Pirates, gave up 10 runs and 10 hits.

Buckingham relieved the final two frames, giving up two hits.

Jones walked nary a man, while Johnson gave up two bases on balls.

Knights Score Baseball Win Over Rams, 9-4

The Las Lomas Knights tasted the sweet fruit of victory Tuesday afternoon at Concord when they posted their first baseball league win by defeating the Pleasant Hill Rams 9-4.

The Rams gave the Knights a scare when they tallied in the opening inning, but the Walnut Creek nine made it a new ball game when it scored one in the second frame, to make it 1-all, and went on to grab the lead by scoring three in the third, and from then on the Knights were never headed.

The Rams added two runs in the fourth and one in the sixth, while the Knights added two in the fifth and three in the sixth to insure the win.

Egan, on the mound for the losers, yielded nine runs on 10 hits, while his teammates committed one error.

West Coast Dog Trials May 2 in Walnut Creek

Entries of trained dogs from up and down the West Coast are being received for Obedience Trials to be held May 2, in the Walnut Creek City Park, according to Carl N. Hatfield of Lakewood, trial secretary.

This will be the seventh annual Obedience Trial given by the Mt. Diablo Dog Training Club, Inc., and licensed by the American Kennel Club. Wins accomplished by dogs' performances in this trial will count toward the AKC's Obedience titles—CD, for Companion Dog, for those in novice work; CDX, for Companion Dog Excellent, for those completing open work, and UD, for Utility Dog, for those completing the most advanced training routines, Hatfield explained.

Over 100 trained dogs are expected to compete in the three rings to be set up on the City Park lawn, with judging by James M. Frey and Kenneth Dyer of San Francisco, and Roy Hatfield of Portland, Oregon.

No admission will be charged.

On the trial committee assisting Carl Hatfield are Dorothy Peters of Concord, Stanley J. Cook and Eileen Jeffcott of Walnut Creek, Alicia Douglas of Danville, Mabel Pullman and Albert Wahl of Lafayette.

Auto Races to Start at Local Stadium Sunday

A combination midget and hard top program will inaugurate the 1954 auto racing season at Contra Costa Speedway near Walnut Creek Sunday afternoon.

Promoter Gene Marsh announced that the initial speedfest will be sanctioned by the Bay Cities Racing Association Ten events will highlight the program being arranged by Jack London, business manager of the BCRA.

Two 25-lap main events for both the hard tops and the midgets will cap the card on the fast quarter-mile dirt strip.

Preceding the feature events, two semi-mains, two trophy dashes and heat races will be run.

Acalanes Cops Decisive Wins In 4-Way Meet

The Acalanes Don trackmen had things pretty much their own way Tuesday afternoon when they rolled up more than enough points in the Varsity and Bee divisions to score convincing wins over Alhambra, Las Lomas and Pleasant Hill in a meet at Acalanes.

Final Varsity tallies showed the Dons out in front with 94⅔ points, Alhambra next with 23, Las Lomas 20 and Pleasant Hill 3⅓.

In the Varsity division, best performances were made when Acalanes' Stan Mumford vaulted 12 feet for a win, Rick Ostrom of Las Lomas ran the 440 in :52.8 and broad jumped 20 feet, 4¼ inches for a double win, and Alhambra's Viano rambled over the mile course in 4:43.2, while the Dons had a winner in the shot when Ray Williamson heaved the iron ball 53 feet, 9½ inches, and Jim Hart tossed the discus 133 feet.

TIMERS HAD THEIR big thrill when Bob Carlson of Acalanes stopped four clocks at :9.5 in the 100-yard dash. Excitement ran high until it was discovered that the race had been over a 90-yard course, due to an error in the starting line.

In the Bee division, Acalanes scored 58, Las Lomas 47, Alhambra 34½ and Pleasant Hill 1½.

OUTSTANDING MARKS were made by Lincoln for Acalanes with a leap of 5 feet 3¼ inches in the high jump, by Cory with a put of 48 feet 5 inches in the shot and by Alden Robertson with :15.0 in the 120-yard low hurdles.

Cory was a double winner when he tossed the discus 118 feet, 6 inches.

Cellini of Alhambra took the 75-yard dash in :8.4, while Westlund of Las Lomas breasted the tape in the 1320 with a time-of 3:41.3.

May Concert by Diablo Choral to Aid Swim Pool

The Diablo Valley Choral recently met for a monthly luncheon and business meeting at the home of Mrs. Walter Rhoades. Assisting with the luncheon were Mrs. Pat Anderson, Mrs. Lenore Ramsing, Mrs. Theresa Freitas, Mrs. Beth McCoy and Mrs. Vola Laughlin.

Mrs. Vera Foss, president, called the meeting to order and plans for the Spring Concert to be held May 1 at the Acalanes High School were discussed. The concert proceeds are to be given to the Las Lomas Swimming Pool Fund. Mrs. Foss was pleased to announce that Samuel Costales is to be the guest artist.

Committeemen for the concert were named as follows: general chairman, Mrs. Ruth Shokal; arrangements, Mrs. Vola Laughlin, Mrs. Belle Guldager and Mrs. Ione Pimley; decorations, Mrs. Faith Haight; risers, Mrs. Ruth Silveria; ushers, Mrs. Gladys Simpson.

Tickets, Mrs. Susan Goetz and Mrs. Eleanor Dixon; program, Mrs. Ardis Rhoades; advertising, Mrs. Jean Koskinen, chairman; posters, Mrs. Irene Wollins; Mrs. Pat Anderson, Mrs. Dorothy Jensen, Mrs. Betty Fulgeum to assist in distribution; newspapers, Mrs. Jean Koskinen, Mrs. Dione Mustard.

Plans for the making of costumes to be used during the singing of numbers from Hans Christian Anderson were discussed.

Please write us news about your family, friends, clubs and interesting events. If you see something important, call at once.

Cal Alumni Plan Local Scholarships

Eighteen applicants for University of California alumni scholarships, all graduating seniors from the three high schools of the Diablo Area, Acalanes, Mt. Diablo and San Ramon, were interviewed by the Diablo Area Scholarship Committee yesterday.

The winners, to be announced at a later date, were chosen on the basis of scholastic standing, future promise and financial need.

This year's committee, headed by Dr. Arthur Lundblad of Orinda, appealed by mail to the 2000 alumni of the area for funds to create these scholarships. On April 1, Blue and Gold checks for one dollar were sent to each alumnus of the university residing in the Diablo area.

Simply by signing his name to the check and filling in the name of his bank and returning the check in the envelope provided, each alum could contribute to a very worthwhile cause.

To date more than 300 have responded and the Blue and Gold checks are still coming in, according to Dr. Lundblad. Any Cal alumnus who has not been reached by letter can contribute by sending a check to Dr. Arthur Lundblad, 22 Van Tassel Lane, Orinda.

Spotlighting The Strip

By KITTY COLE

This column could be called Kitty Cole's Cook's Tour of Cape Cod House, or how to spend a rainy Sunday. First I talked to MILLARD HARRIS, the night bartender, who has been there since Cape Cod opened. HARRIS who must hear many a "tall tale," never gossips, and is therefore an ideal bar-man. Said he, "Don't forget to mention my friend OSCAR GUSTAFSON, who's the day bartender, and has been here three years, too.

Tearing myself away from the glowing fire in the cocktail lounge was difficult, but I was promised a look behind the scenes of the delicious food which is served here. VIRGIL MENOMI took me through the huge rooms and into the three walk-in refrigerators and proudly pointed out the new stoves which completely cover one wall. Such a set-up. The cooks are even more proud of the new equipment than is DON THOMPSON and feel they are working under the best conditions in this area.

My jaunts in and out of our fine restaurants bring me in contact with many interesting public figures which I might never meet otherwise. F'rinstance, at the GREGORY GARDENS FOUNTAIN, Sunday, last, I met RAY TAYLOR, the county supervisor, having brunch. Learning I was with the newspaper, we had quite a discussion, and I got an insight into the many complexities which go with public office. And by the way, thanks for the lunch, MR. T.

The latest in dinner menu covers, and so very apropos, is the one on the front of VOODOO VILLAGE'S fine selection of food. Heads of native Haitians on a sepia background, and most attractive. They were designed and painted by WANDA MARKS, who with husband JIM, have just ended their first successful week as new owners of the VILLAGE.

While serving breakfast and lunch for business men and shoppers, the MARKS, none-the-less hope to build the family trade with their Italian dinners. Hors d' oeuvres, soup, salad, paste, entree, drink, the complete meal from $1.35. Anybody for filet mignon??? Only $2.60 here.

C. & B. RESTAURANT will be closed Mondays until BOB and SADIE BOLAND can catch up on some much needed rest. These two put in at least 18 hours a day, and have been there 7 days a week.

The eatery will close with the cocktail bar at 2 a.m. Monday and reopen Tuesday at 5 a.m.

Music Teachers To Hear Speaker

The Contra Costa County Branch of the Music Teachers Association will meet Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Doris Marliave of Walnut Creek.

Mr. Lindsay of the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center will select a speaker on "Music and Its Use in Therapy."

Open Letter to Cummings and Taylor

You and your associates on the Board of Supervisors this week turned down a proposal to outlaw pin-ball machines in the county. This law was recommended unanimously by the Grand Jury after an investigation of pin-ball gambling.

To date, you have both indicated opposition not only to this law, but to any legislation on pin-ball games.

In your comments and voting so far, you have both chosen to disregard and belittle the problem of pin-ball gambling in Contra Costa County.

You, Mr. Cummings, have said, "I don't think it (pin-ball gambling) amounts to very much." You, Mr. Taylor, have said, "I still don't think there's been any great problem of pin-balls in my district."

In contrast to these belittling statements, here are the facts:

1. Richmond and its neighboring areas have fought the problem for years and the City of Richmond now has a law designed to eliminate pin-ball gambling.

2. Antioch, after the same kind of fight, passed a city law outlawing all pin-ball games.

3. Pittsburg, again, passed a city law requiring licenses for all legal pin-ball games and prohibiting others.

4. Walnut Creek is right now studying a proposal to solve its pin-ball problem.

5. Sheriff James Long raided pin-ball games in the southern part of the county and found four illegal machines. According to his deputies, other games were removed just before that raid was made.

6. Judge Donald Creedon in Rodeo asked you to pass a law to solve one aspect of the pin-ball problem, a law to make it illegal for juveniles to play the games. You voted against it. The City of Oakland just passed such a law.

7. Some 19 citizens in El Sobrante took the problem to the 1954 Grand Jury and asked for the law which you rejected this week.

8. The SUN reported wide-spread pin-ball gambling throughout the central portion of the county and reported this to our law enforcement authorities and later to the Grand Jury.

9. Other newspapers in the county reported on pin-ball operations indicating it is a real problem. A large metropolitan daily newspaper did the same.

10. The 1954 Grand Jury saw fit to conduct an extensive investigation, and, at its completion, unanimously recommended the law you have now rejected. This Grand Jury is made up from civic leaders from both of your districts, as well as from all other sections of the county. Jurors interviewed our county law enforcement officers, chiefs of police, SUN editors and others.

There is a pin-ball problem in Contra Costa! It is impossible to believe that you are not aware of it, although that is what your actions indicate.

It is, perhaps, only fair to say that you did seem to admit the existence of the pin-ball problem when you both, at different times, said that the whole thing is a state problem.

But what did you mean ?

You know the state has a law outlawing pin-ball games which are games of chance. You know that this law is usable, because J. F. Coakley, district attorney of Alameda County, has used it to outlaw pin-ball gambling in his domain.

You know, too, that this law has been the basis of local action throughout the state — in San Francisco, for example, where a local ordinance employs much the same wording to prohibit certain kinds of pin-ball games.

So, the law exists. The state has taken action. Would you also propose that the state enforce this law? Would you ask the state to send in officers to go from bar to bar and pick up illegal games?

This, of course, is impossible. It is up to local law enforcement agencies to enforce the law. It is up to Sheriff James Long and District Attorney Francis Collins in Contra Costa County.

If Long and Collins don't see to it that the State Penal Code is enforced, it is your job to make them do it.

There is one main reason why the 1954 Grand Jury recommended the law which you voted against, according to Foreman Arthur Granshaw.

Law enforcement officers in the county want a stronger law than the state has provided. They want a more specific law with more teeth. Sheriff Long has said that he doesn't have enough deputies to keep a constant eye on pin-ball machines which, by minor adjustments, can be changed from legal to illegal types in an instant. City Police chiefs have concurred.

You can ask your law enforcement officers to use the state law or you can pass a tougher ordinance. Pin-ball gambling can be stopped either way.

If you want to solve the problem, it can be done in Contra Costa just as it has been done in Sacramento, Los Angeles, San Diego, Alameda, San Francisco and other cities and counties in California.

It's squarely up to you. Facts show the problem is real in Contra Costa; facts show that methods have been found whenever officials wanted to do so.

For your own safety, for everyone's . . . we must get rid of traffic accidents. Little accidents that cost injuries and repair bills. Big accidents that take lives. All must go!

Be Careful—the life you save may be your own!

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor:

I was very pleased to read, in the last issue of The SUN, your suggestion that constable candidates plan an active role in law enforcement.

I was particularly pleased because your thoughts on the subject are very close to mine, and if elected, I will institute a vigorous program.

I FEEL IT very important the constable aid presently undermanned law enforcement agencies in protection of the citizens of this area.

The problems I am most concerned with are speeding on the residential streets and the illegal dumping of trash in our beautiful area of the county.

And it is traffic I feel is most important. I would spend a portion of each day patrolling for speeders and other violators.

IN ADDITION, I would assist the California Highway Patrol, the Sheriff's Department and the Walnut Creek Police Department, whenever requested.

Sincerely,
VINCENT E. YOUNG,
Constable Candidate

What They Say . . .

How About Commuter Car Pools?

Traffic congestion is becoming an increasingly difficult problem, and freeways may or may not be the answer.

At any rate, freeways develop slowly, and until they arrive commuters continue to wait long hours, bumper to bumper, while their dinner cools at home.

Considering this problem The SUN this week called upon residents to ask them, "Do you think motorists from this area who commute to and from their jobs in the East Bay or San Francisco should work out car-pooling arrangements? why?"

And here are the answers:

"I THINK IF they leave at regular hours, it's fine, but if they come and go and have to be on the road it doesn't work out very well," said Mrs. Robert D. Weeks, 392 Colorados Court, Lafayette.

"Yes, I think so. They are having so much difficulty with the busses, that I don't know if there is any other way they can do it," commented Mrs. A. F. Weidenbacker, 88 Loma Vista Drive, Orinda.

Mrs. Ira O. Well, 51 Charles Hill Road, Orinda, said, "Yes, I do. I think it would relieve a lot of congestion on the highway and would give the wife at home a car to use while the husband is in town. Moreover, the commuting service on Greyhound is not satisfactory."

ROBERT W. SKELTON, 969 Janet Lane, Lafayette, said "I guess it's all right if it fits into their schedules. I work odd hours, myself, so I couldn't fit into a car pool. I think, however, from the standpoint of cutting down the traffic problems it would be a good idea."

F. J. Esterlin of 125 El Camino Corto, Walnut Creek, replied that he is not a commuter but he "should think so. It would kind of ease up on the congestion."

"Yes, I definitely do," answered Eugene A. Callahan, 267 Evelyn Drive, Pleasant Hill. "It would decrease the traffic load which is now too great."

David R. Burns of 2154 Anheita Drive, Plesant Hill, said, "Yes. It's cheaper and relieves traffic congestion."

"Yes, it would make fewer cars on the highway," replied Mrs. Fred R. Muhs of 1410 Finly Drive, Walnut Creek.

defense for the City of Richmond and also manager of the Richmond Auditorium.

He denied he was promised these jobs if he wouldn't run for sheriff.

More questions — and answers

The following are questions asked Richardson and his answers:

Q. Do you approve of Sheriff Long's policies and the way he runs the sheriff's department?

A. In your section, conditions are reportedly worse than in our section. I'm going to try to improve everything . . . and leave it better than I found it.

Q. Do you approve of Sheriff Long's policies and the way he runs the department? (question repeated).

A. It would be foolish . . . unwise to say anything that would jeopardize my chances to get in. I hope Jim will give me a hand.

Q. Do you approve of the sheriff's civil defense program? (Long is county coordinator of civil defense. The program is under attack as being completely inadequate, inefficient and ineffective.)

A. I haven't investigated it. He certainly tried hard to interest the community but couldn't. . . .

Gambling — or vice?

Q. Is there any gambling or vice going on now?

A. Not where I come from. None in Richmond.

Q. What about North Richmond?

A. I don't know much about it. I haven't been there for a long time. No, wait . . . I was there within the past three months in the interest of boxing programs in our auditorium. I went into most of the night spots . . . during the day. I didn't see any evidence of it.

Q. Are you aware of grave problem presented in North Richmond and of the recent large-scale raid on it by the sheriff's force?

A. Yes, it is a problem.

How much to run for sheriff?

Q. How much money will it take to run your campaign through the primary election?

A. At least $15,000. There's no money in the till yet but I've been assured enough money.

Q. By whom?

A. My sponsors.

Q. Who are they?

A. I'd rather not list them by name. Business and professional people are reluctant (to be publiczed). You see, John Miller has as many friends and acquaintances as any one in the county.

Q. Would you take money from Bill Pechart (county gambling king)?

A. I don't handle the campaign funds. Larkin Smith will. I would tell him not to. I have enough support from good, reputable people.

Election prediction

Q. Who do you think will win in the primary?

A. Miller and either Harry Brown or me. I am not over-confident. Brown is a good candidate. Brown has a lot on the ball — a brilliant record in the Navy, fine looking man, nice family, church background, . . . intelligent. He thinks fast on his feet — has everything a sheriff should have.

Q. Would you remove him as lieutenant in the department if you are elected?

A. Absolutely not.

Q. Miller has been accused of having a pile of money . . . making many expensive trips throughout the world. What do you think?

A. Miller lives modestly and has probably made good investments.

Q. What do you figure is the legal take of the sheriff?

A. $20,000 to $25,000 a year. I'm happy on a salary job and am not interested in worldly gain.

Richardson's Platform

Q. What program do you propose to improve the sheriff's department?

A. I'll put into operation the most efficient system possible. I believe in good public relations, cooperation with other departments and other law enforcement agencies. I have a lot of confidence in the staff and will get suggestions from them. I'd make a complete survey of the department.

Q. What do you think of establishing sub-stations?

A. I don't plan on substations.

Richardson was asked other questions and talked at length on his qualifications and accomplishments. These are listed in this issue in a separate story.

This column and The SUN will analyze the sheriff's race in future issues.

How Much Will Sewer Bonds Cost You ?

(Editor's note: The following article was prepared and released by Gerry Horstkotte Jr., engineer for the Central Contra Costa Sanitary District, to explain the cost of the bond issue to be placed before the public Tuesday.

It is evident that if a bond issue is passed, residents of the district will have to pay for the bonds. But not so evident is the low cost of this bond issue to the individual taxpayer.

For example: during the first year after passage of the bonds, the bond retirement rate will increase taxes only a maximum of six cents per $100 of assessed valuation. With the average home in the district assessed at 250$0 for tax purposes, the average taxpayer will be paying only $1.50 per year more in taxes, or 12½ cents per month. This is less than the cost of one package of cigarettes per month, and less than one-half cent per day!

ON THE OTHER HAND, if the bond election fails, even without proposed assessment districts, or sewer rental fees, the tax rate will increase because of rising operating costs made necessary by ever-increasing repairs to sewer lines caused by over-capacity flow.

The passage of the bond issue, on the other hand, will enable the district to start a gradual reduction of operating expenses.

In keeping with the district's policy of bringing all the facts before the public, it must be admitted that because of bond financing, the retirement rate will reach its height in 1958.

When this retirement rate is at its highest, in that year ,the average homeowner will pay a maximum of 50 cents per month over what he today pays, for that one year only, following which the rate will start a steady decline.

THERE ARE MANY factors which must be considered in any financial picture of the bond election. It is not fair to the individual taxpayer, or to the sanitary district, to look at the bond election as a whole. The individual taxpayer must look at this issue as it affects him—from both a financial and a health standpoint.

These additional factors must be taken into account:

1. There is no guarantee to the taxpayer that the tax rate will not increase without the passage of the bonds, as operating costs for the present system will continue to rise, and the district will be getting less and less for its tax dollar as temporary repairs are made on existing lines.

2. THE TAXPAYER may be paying more than the cost of the bonds over a shorter period of time, as the district may be forced into forming assessment districts, or into a sewer rental plan, or a combination of both, which would be more expensive in the long run.

3. The taxpayer must not think that only present members of the district will be carrying these bonds, because every new resident of the district will have to shoulder his share of redemption, which will result in a steady reduction of taxes.

4. THE TAXPAYER must remember that assessed valuation will increase when more and more people move into the district. This, too, will result in lower taxes.

5. The taxpayer must remember that for the average price of a carton of cigarettes per year, a healthy area in which to live is assured.
